FORT LARNED disputed the early pace under rating outside ALPHA, dropped in towards the rail to establish command nearing the first turn, took some pressure while within himself, edged away nearing the half mile marker, came under left handed urging entering the stretch, was confronted by MUCHO MACHO MAN in the vicinity of the eighth pole, kept on tenaciously under continued left handed urging and fended off that rival. MUCHO MACHO MAN, forwardly placed between rivals into the first turn, patiently tracked the winner down the backstretch, was given his cue to go on leaving the far turn, steadily cut into the margin approaching the lane, drew alongside the winner in mid stretch, dueled gamely but could not get by. FLAT OUT settled well off the early pace while towards the inside, swung out nearing the half mile marker, commenced a five wide run leaving the far turn and into the lane, drifted in past the furlong grounds and failed to seriously sustain. RON THE GREEK, away a bit awkwardly, dropped in passing the stands the first time and lagged back, angled out to start a four wide run exiting the three eighths pole, continued progress into the stretch but could only gain slightly in the last eighth. RICHARD'S KID, three wide early while well off the pace, split foes making a nice run nearing the five sixteenths marker, angled in soon after, shifted back out in upper stretch, moved up between rivals nearing the eighth pole as his rider lost his whip, drifted in some late and flattened out. NONIOS brushed with GAME ON DUDE and was floated out five wide near the seven eighths pole, edged closer off the rail after six furlongs, gave pursuit between horses nearing the lane, angled in but failed to kick on. GAME ON DUDE lightly steadied soon after the break and angled in to rate behind rivals, brushed with NONIOS when working outward for a clear path into the first turn, steadied off the heels of TO HONOR AND SERVE nearing the backstretch, shifted out and stalked four wide, made a brief but sharp move leaving the far turn, flattened out under pressure past the five sixteenths pole, drifted in and gave way through the drive. POOL PLAY lacked speed saving some ground, swung five wide around the final turn but lacked a rally. HANDSOME MIKE, up close between rivals around the first turn, dropped in a bit and rated close into the far turn, came under pressure soon after, brushed with RICHARD'S KID nearing the stretch then gave way. TO HONOR AND SERVE, four to five wide early, angled in to about the three path around the first turn to attend the pace, steadied off the heels of GAME ON DUDE into the second turn, faltered soon after and was being eased late. BRILLIANT SPEED steadied repeatedly when difficult to settle behind rivals the entire first turn, chased off the rail and angled out leaving the second turn, gave way and was eased. ALPHA, sent from the gate to get a brief early lead, rated back along the rail to stalk the winner into the backstretch, had nothing when called upon near the half mile marker, stopped abruptly leaving the three eighths marker and was eased through the final three sixteenths.
