

WIZARD'S PICK OF THE DAY FAIR GROUNDS RACE COURSE Sunday 01/16/2011

Available 7 Days a Week

Forecast High 56 F P Cloudy
Low 50 F Precip: 90%

Making a consistent profit at the races requires the discipline to choose the right betting opportunities and, in those situations, wager in the most logical manner. The Pick of the Day is the one horse, from among the major tracks racing that day, I feel to be both a win bet and a "key" horse to produce nice payoffs in exactas or trifectas.

The Pick of The Day has hit at approximately 40% since its inception several years ago. Numerous winning exacta and trifecta combinations have been identified in the wagering section. Each Pick of the Day sheet includes the conditions of the race, a complete program listing the entire field with morning line odds, and other valuable information. My description of the pace scenario, detailed analysis of the selected horse, and clear wagering strategies explain why I like the play and how you can profit.

Once a week, either on a Saturday or Sunday, I will provide, FREE OF CHARGE, a bonus play: 2 plays for the price of one.

EVERY EFFORT WAS MADE TO ENSURE ACCURACY OF PROGRAM NUMBERS. PLEASE VERIFY BEFORE WAGERING

Pace Scenario

An abundance of early speed types and runners that like to attend the early pace will ensure an honest pace and aid the late run of our top pick.

PICK OF THE DAY # 4 Newfy

Scored by 5 1/2 lengths at the $7,500 level at Delaware Park back in early August, and the veteran runner was claimed away from owner/trainer Jonas Gibson. Gibson did not hesitate to step back in for $12,500 and claim this runner back, despite him being only months away from his 8th birthday. Gibson protected the gelding in starter allowance races in next two outings, before putting him on the shelf for a freshening to prepare for this meet. Dropped to the $5,000 level last time, the grandson of Capote ran a tremendous race. He was the only closer to make a run, unleashing a powerful late rally to just miss despite a very wide trip throughout. He is now confidently stepped up in class and should offer a square price. Gets the right pace setup in search of 14th career win.

Wagering Strategy

Play # 4 NEWFY to WIN AND PLACE. Five unit exacta with 5. Reverse for three units. Three unit exacta partwheel with # 2, 6, 7. Reverse for one unit.

A unit = your base wager. For example, if you are a $2 better, one unit would equal $2. These are just suggestions, so please remember to wager within your comfort level. Every effort has been made to ensure the program numbers are correct but please double check before wagering.

SCRATCHES: If the Pick of the Day is scratched, alerting e-mail will be sent to your DRF.com address. You will be able to download a replacement Pick of the Day at anytime in the future. Please note that if a bonus play is included, that becomes the selection.
