RUBYSANDPEARLS set a solid pace from the two path under some pressure, got let out at the quarter pole, edged away to the furlong marker, dug in under a drive to repulse a pair and prevail. THE TRUTH AND K G three to four wide in pursuit, bid on the front under urging from the three-eighths improving to the quarter pole, swung three wide at that station, dug in fighting on through to the wire but was repulsed. WEST HILLS GIANT two to three wide in pursuit from towards the rear of a compact group, cut the corner into the stretch roused, offered up a mild kick but was outfinished by the top pair. PATRICK S pressed the pace from the three path under urging from the three-eighths pole, remained a forward factor to the quarter pole then weakened in the stretch. WINNING CAUSE bobbled slightly at the start, came under urging at the five-sixteenths, spun three wide for home and trailed throughout.
