B. c, (Mar), by Include – Early Mass, by Pleasant Tap. Trainer Dutrow Richard E Jr. Bred by Morgan's Ford Farm (Va).

REDEEMED came away in good order, quickly established control and was angled over towards the inside, made it there before reaching the end of the homestretch, carved the pace, on a loosely-contested, with the rider applying the mildest of hand urging to maintain interest, continued along on the front taking the inside route on the far turn, only under slightly more energetic handling, turned for home and was set down, lengthened away to a commanding advantage during the ensuing furlong, remained under a drive for about another sixteenth, before being geared down once the outcome was no longer in doubt. ELDAAFER settled into midpack soon after the start, was forced to steady off a rank EYE ON JACOB's heels just before reaching the opening turn, sat reserved from the outside proceeding down the backstretch, tipped three wide a short distance from the half mile pole, scooted by rivals and made it into the two path for the run around the second turn, closed the gap, doing so in the late stages of the march under strong handling, fell back steadily when unable to keep pace with the winner during the stretch drive, held well enough to secure second. ARTHUR'S TALE contently stalked the loose leader during the initial stages, was guided over to the rail coming to the end of the backstretch, got set down at the midway point, failed to make any headway, held off the others for the show. NOT ABROAD raced along the outside, advanced into contention down the backstretch but could not sustain the move. HAILSTONE reserved near the back of the pack for the opening three-quarters, swung into the two path coming to the half mile pole, failed to respond when asked a furlong down the road. PRAETEREO underwent a ground-saving journey, was let out a notch attempting to pick up interest at the half mile pole, failed to pick up any noticeably, cut the corner into the lane and faltered. BOXEUR DES RUES three wide around each bend, was outrun. GOLDEN GULCH took the three path around both turns, folded. BIRDRUN stumbled badly at the break, flipping the jockey out of the saddle resulting in the loss of the left iron, expertly got back into proper stride in short order and with the pilot back in both irons in plenty of time for the run around the first turn, left the homestretch three wide, chased the winner from off the inside until the half mile pole before backing away. EYE ON JACOB rank under restraint in the initial stages, was through by the half mile pole. KENTUCKY REIGN stalked from the outside and tired.
