NECK 'N NECK settled in hand, took closer order after a half, drew even four wide leaving the second turn, shook clear and widened through the drive. STEALCASE was rank to place and steadied between horses on the first turn, leveled into stride after three furlongs, came four wide and was all out to earn the place. MACHO MACHO settled saving ground within contention, angled out five wide inside the three-sixteenths pole and improved position through the drive. RIGHT TO VOTE opened clear to set the pace, was collared with three furlongs to run, disputed the issue to the stretch but gave way readily once headed. MASTER RICK tracked the pace three wide, moved with the winner on the second turn, bid between horses, but drifted in entering the stretch, was straightened away but came up empty thereafter.
