B. f, (Mar), by Real Quiet – Flaine , by Chenin Blanc . Trainer Fout P Douglas. Bred by Magalen O Bryant (Pa).

QUIET FLAINE raced to a clear advantage shortly after the start, held sway with a mild pace to the backstretch when challenged PTARMIGAN and responded well to draw clear on the final turn, was in good command in the lane when losing the whip on the last fence, drifted out a bit and in front of PTARMIGAN with forty yards to go and held off the gaining rival. PTARMIGAN bided her time for a mile and half while settled along the inside, angled out for her run along the backstretch, reached a striking position entering the final turn, and was gaining when forced to altered her course in the deep stretch to avoid QUIET FLAINE as that one drifted out. OPERA HEROINE was slow in the early stages, gained ground steadily with a late run along the outside. WELL FASHIONED quickly assumed command from the start, gave ground after five furlongs and tracked the leaders thereafter but faded on the turn. SWEET SHANI (NZ) was in good position but tired and pulled up at the eleventh fence.
