Dk. b or br. f, (Mar), by Catienus – Mistress Hemming , by Quiet American . Trainer Dalton Kate. Bred by Happy Hill Farm (NY).

CAT FEATHERS saved ground during the initial stages, remained well reserved until the third turn, ranged up towards the front runners, maintained the momentum and continued to advance around the upcoming bend, responded positively when given her cue for the stretch drive, had only a slight deficit to make up with one jump to go, went over it without incident and continued onward, wrested away the advantage near the sixteenth marker and kicked clear, driving. SWEET SHANI (NZ) patiently stalked the loose pacesetter for the opening three turns, picked up interest and closed the gap proceeding the backstretch the second time, bid in earnest after completing the eighth jump, took over a short distance before reaching the head of the stretch with the eventual winner having made her presence, got asked for run as the stretch duel commenced, reached the final hurdle first, got reeled in with about a sixteenth to go but was clearly second best. WELL FASHIONED took the inside route until the seventh jump, came inward slightly but enough to rub shoulders with her stable mate inadvertently putting said rival momentarily in danger of leaving the course, bobbled after making it over the last fence, had enough left to grab the show. MAGGIE NEARY (IRE) three wide around the first three turns, got outfinished. MAYA CHARLI spurted off from the competition soon after the flag was dropped, proved ratable showing the way near the inside, had the others begin to close in leaving the third turn, got confronted by the runner up heading for the final one, offered some resistance before relinquishing, then faltered. LONESOME saved ground nearly throughout and was never in contention. EURO POWER was three wide around every turn, was put to encouragement upon reaching the last one, folded. EASTERN STARLETT stalked the pacesetter from afar, was put to a drive leaving the backstretch for the second time, tired then left the course before attempting the ninth. QUIET FLAINE saved ground to no avail, was leaned on by her stable mate at the penultimate hurdle, left the course one jump later.
