WHY NOT BE PERFECT raced close to the pace inside, angled out on the second turn, bid willingly, assumed command near the sixteenth pole and drew off under steady urging. MAJOR MAGIC raced in the second flight, rallied three across on the turn, assumed command near the eighth pole, led briefly, was outclosed and was no match for the winner. GOLDFIRE was taken back at the start, trailed far back, rallied around the turn, went widest in the drive and closed to get up for show. GREEN SECRET vied two across to the second turn, fell back and was outfinished for show. THE GOV vied inside to second turn, inched away for a short lead and faltered mid stretch.
