MR. JORDAN locked on outside KROY right away as they sped clear of the others, edged closer applying more pressure midway on the turn in the three-path, dueled and finally gained the upper hand entering the last furlong, and drew clear through deep stretch. KROY dashed clear early while kept off the rail, was hounded by MR. JORDAN from midway on the turn, came three wide dueling inside that rival through upper stretch, yielded coming to the sixteenth-pole and was clearly second best. HY RIVERSIDE saved ground being outsprinted to the lane, stayed inside for the drive and just prevailed for the show. DELAND broke a step slowly, was taken out widest soon after that, and improved position late on the far outside without making his presence felt. THREE RULES stayed in range along the inside early, came out to the three-path turning for home, had the rider lose the whip when it was knocked out of his hand by the rider of SWEETONHELADIES outside the eighth-pole, and flattened out. SWEETONHELADIES raced two to three wide on the turn, shifted out wider past the three-sixteenths, and faded from there. QUIJOTE lost ground to the leaders three wide after a half-mile, and dropped back in the stretch.
