STRATTON contended the final turn, drew off and was ridden out. BLUE BOMBER was unhurried early, bid four wide and was along for place while no match for the winner. TALLY STICK saved ground, shifted out for the drive and offered a mild bid to get up for show. TRIBAL MONEY raced close to the pace, rallied on the final turn to loom a threat, had nothing left and fell back. GINS AND GIGGLES showed speed to the final turn, tired and gave way. PACIFIC NIGHTS was not a factor. REBELLIOUS DIANA was through early.
