SUNNY RIDGE remained along the inside after the field had been sent on its way, tracked the front runners, pulling slightly on the left and without the benefit of being covered up, glided to the outside as the front runners was shifting closer to the rail themselves, this occurring at the conclusion of the backstretch, began the run around the bend stationed out in path three, closed in a steadfast manner, picked it up enough when asked leaving the five-sixteenths marker to lead the competition into lane by a narrow margin, settled in then kicked clear, kept to some encouragement to the end. TIMELINE grabbed control shortly after the start, cut the pace, well rated in path two during the journey on the backstretch, with YOU'RE TO BLAIME in attendance to the outside, slid over to the rail coming up to the half mile pole, with the aforementioned foe following suit by moving nearer to the inside too, got overhauled by the winner a couple of jumps shy of the quarter pole, held on well enough down the lane to salvage second. YOU'RE TO BLAME put to a brisk ride after springing from the gate, got out-worked for the top, went on to stalk the leader rated in path three afterwards, continued at the task, but now from path two during the run around the bend, was cued up angling into path four spinning into the stretch, straightened away and was outfinished. GIUSEPPE THE GREAT three wide onto the turn, was sent four wide exiting it, never made its presence felt. FRAMMENTO guided over to the rail at the half mile pole, swung three wide entering the turn, made no impact.
