B. f, (Feb), by Star Guitar - Moment of Majesty, by Saint Liam. Trainer Faucheux Ron. Bred by Brittlyn Inc(La).

STAR MOMENT left the gates well, took the lead, attended the pace from the rail, was never challenged, drew off. ALPINE MIST was slow getting into stride, raced along the rail smartly saving ground this trip, sat four off of the leader for the first three and half furlongs, started advancing after the half, was encouraged starting in the upper stretch and responded with a persistent drive that wore down the rest of the rivals and she was able to claim second place honors. LOUISIANA LIBERTY was slow getting started, was three wide racing through the first turn, was allowed to find her stride and was unhurried until the half mile pole, was slightly encouraged to pick up her pace after the half, responded well and was cued at the three eighths pole, gamely circled the field and was in position at the quarter pole, was encouraged and raced through the stretch, was able to finish third. FREE DROP MADDY stalked the pace three wide, was within striking distance and poised while racing down the backside, was asked at the three eighths pole and responded with a run, but the leader was able to keep the same distance between herself and FREE DROP MADDY, struggled down the lane and as the distance increased she eventually stopped. GUITAR WOMAN was sent out of the gates, took the first turn three wide and win between horses, raced three and four wide through out, was in between horses for the first half of a mile, was asked at the half mile pole and ended up matching strides with the same for who was on her outside the whole race, was pressure through the turn and tired after the quarter pole. OLIVIA G was five wide through the first turn, chased the early leaders past the six furlong pole, finally settled along the outside of the set of horses that were just off the leader, asked after the half and matched strides with an inner for, they battled through the second turn and OLIVIA G tired by the quarter pole.
