Ch. g, (Feb), by Run Away and Hide – Aunt Sherri, by Stephen Got Even. Trainer Stewart Dallas. Bred by Sharon Dodgen & Barak Farm (Ind).

RUN AWAY ROJO chased the pace while near the inside, continued along the into the turn, moved to the two path to pass a tiring one, bid into the lane while near the inside, spurted clear straightening into the lane, was all out late while drifting out from left handed urging in the final twenty yards. KING ICE was unhurried early and allowed to trailed the field into the far turn, raced in the three path through mid-turn, came into the lane five wide with good momentum, rallied from mid-track, was brushed late when closing in and just missed while 2nd best. BAD BOY GEIST chased the pace from the three path through the far turn, bid into the lane from the two path, was closest to the winner with an eighth to go, could not gain on that one but finished clear for the showspot. DOUBLEDOGJUSTICE was without speed into the far turn, moved through the three path in mid-turn, came into the lane from the six path and moved up whiledrifting in a couple paths. WIN ME OVER raced in the four path when never far back, continued four wide into the lane and weakened late. ZAPPINIT set the pace while under pressure through the turn then gave way. SECRET RENDEZ VOUS saved ground into the turn, angled into the eight path for the drive and never was a factor. CHISEL pressed the pace two wide through mid-turn then was empty in late turn. SPOTONJUSTICE raced in the two path through the far turn, was still a contender into the lane then was empty the final eighth. MONUMENTALJUSTICE raced four wide through the first turn, was still a contender into the lane then was empty the final eighth. MONUMENTALJUSTICE raced near therail while near mid-pack, was done entering the lane, was eased late and walked off.
