THEBIGFUNDAMENTAL broke well and remained forwardly placed, pursued the leader from the three path on the turn, closed the gap after three-quarters had been run, issued a confident challenge spinning into the stretch, was almost a half in front when asked for more travelling in the furlong grounds, gave it willingly and kicked clear. HAMMERIN AAMER sat within range of the front runners well rated in the the two path, picked up interest coming up to the end of the bend, fanned out into path six from upper to midstretch, straightened away and had a good finish down the center of the strip to procure the place. LENSTAR came away a length the fastest of all, cut over to the two path, showed the way, pulling on the left side of the bit, and with the primary pressure coming from NIGEL'S DESTINY stationed along the inside route, shook that one off only to have the winner draw up as the new danger after six furlongs had been reached, got set down stepping into the stretch, yielded in the general area of the three-sixteenths marker, then weakened into the show slot. NIGEL'S DESTINY settled along the rail soon after the start, put the pressure on LENSTAR during the initial stages, pilot applying a strong grip on the reins for most of the opening half, began to fall back as the third fraction was about to be posted, backed away steadily once into the stretch. VINCENTO inched his way into the two path proceeding along the backstretch, departed it by tipping out into path three, chased the pace without making its presence felt during the run around the bend, got sent out into path seven by midstretch, lacked a solid offering. BATTLE MIDWAY strung out four wide on the turn, was never involved. TATHQEEF parked out along the overland route on the turn, angled into path eight during the opening stages of the stretch run, lacked a rally. WILD ABOUT DEB made it over to the rail in short order after the start, came under a ride approachign the half mile pole, didn't pick up ground appreciably. EXULTING left the post parade after stepping onto the track, underwent a four wide pursuit on turn, and gave way after going three-quarters.
