Ch. m. (Oct), by Scat Daddy - Daja-Chi, by Seeker's Reward. Trainer Brown Chad C. Bred by Haras Paso Nevado (Chi).

DACITA (CHI) was allowed to settle off the pace while going around the first turn on the rail, held her position up the backstretch, took the turn for home three wide then swung four wide at the top of the stretch, uncorked a long rally down the lane and got up in time. DONA BRUJA (ARG) sat well rated off the pace going around the first turn in the two path, moved up closer to the pace as the field passed the half mile pole, turned for home going three wide, ran all out through the stretch taking a brief lead with a sixteenth to go but got caught just before the finish. GRAND JETE (GB) sat well rated off the pace while hugging the rail the whole way, found herself with no room to run in the stretch then elbowed her way towards the outside after getting through at the eighth pole pushing PRADO'S SWEET RIDE out of the way, closed with a rush once clear. RAINHA DA BATERIA broke outward then was content to trail the field, went around the turns in the two path but nearing the top of the stretch she swung very wide looking for running room then closed willingly from there. KITTEN'S ROAR stalked the pace on the outside going two wide around the turns, hit her best stride with a sixteenth to go. SARANDIA (GER) was sluggish out of the gate then got shuffled back, ran towards the rear most of the way while in the two path then rallied well when asked for more. HAWKSMOOR (IRE) chased the pace on the outside going two and three wide around the turns, vied for the lead and held it briefly at the eighth pole but retreated. RAIN GODDESS (IRE) hit the gate at the start but quickly got into stride to chase the pace, went two wide around both turns, began to rally then got brushed at the eighth pole and weakened from there. ZIPESSA had a comfortable lead most of the way while running in the two path, dug in when she was collared at the quarter pole but gave way with a furlong to go. PRADO'S SWEET RIDE stalked the pace on the inside sticking to the rail, got bumped at the eighth pole when GRAND JETE shoved her way through then she faded from there.
