TEXTING was on hold inside through the stretch the first time, put in a sharp three-wide run to contention around the final turn, caught DARING DUCHESS past the eighth-pole, and prevailed under good handling. DARING DUCHESS took control in the two-path, shook off a couple of pursuers approaching the quarter-pole, was put to the whip in upper stretch as TEXTING came calling, and yielded grudgingly while drifting out some. TARALENA moved up two wide heading into the second turn, lost position leaving the backstretch the final time, swung four wide at the top of the lane, and could not kick on with the leaders while able to edge SUMMERSAULT for third at the wire. SUMMERSAULT broke slow, saved ground for the first mile, put in a brief three-wide run late on the final turn, shifted back inside and had no punch. BEAULY (GB) prompted the pace inside and tired through the last quarter-mile. APPLE BETTY (IRE) raced three wide for a mile, made a brief run outside DARING DUCHESS when asked to get going at the half-mile pole, had nothing to offer and faded steadily in the stretch. MISS NANCY saved ground and was outrun.
