ONE LIZ stalked the pace between horses, uncorked a rally down the stretch, got bumped by PUNTSVILLE with a sixteenth to go but shook it off and edged clear. PUNTSVILLE had a comfortable lead most of the way, dug in when asked for more but began to get tired and drift out brushing ONE LIZ with a sixteenth to go. MY MERTIE was fractious in the gate then ran towards the rear, swung into the stretch in the four path and uncorked a rally on the outside. CHURCH ROAD chased the pace going three wide and had no response when asked. DANDY GAL tracked the pace in the three path then finished evenly. GO LADY JAY ran towards the rear then lacked a rally and was eased in the final furlong.
