FLORIDA FUEGO was rated in range going through the backstretch, launched four wide bid in the turn, kept under a ride along outside in the lane, steadily inched up closer then got nose up on the wire. LUZMIMI PRINCESS broke out at the start then cleared on top and angled inside, repelled bid from WRITER'S ALMANAC near the quarter pole, saved ground entering the lane, came off inside, led late under driving finish then got denied when FLORIDA FUEGO got nose up on the wire. WRITER'S ALMANAC raced in tracking position just off the leader, made move for LUZMIMI PRINCESS in the turn, could not reach equal terms with rival but never gave up and continued solid effort the end. SILVER BAY chased the pace, hustled up along outside in the turn then evened out in the lane. OOLA GAL raced off the pace then widest entering the lane and lacked needed rally for late impact. VIOLENT WAVE showed early interest then came up empty after the half mile, was not persevered with after, eased to the wire and walked off after the race.
