B. g, (Mar), by Colonel John - Shouldn't We All, by Woodman. Trainer Rycroft Tim. Bred by Smart Angle LLP (Pa).

TROOPER JOHN was reserved off the pacesetters, moved up between rivals in striking position then went in pursuit of the lead at the top of the stretch and prevailed under a drive. BAR NO Q was under a strong hold early to settle just off the pace, overtook the pace entering the backstretch, inched clear or the field approaching the stretch then was challenged by TROOPER JOHN, dug in midstretch but was outfinished. XTREME LYRA stalked the pace along the rail, was roused at the quarter pole then waited for running room, swung three-wide and rallied belatedly getting up for show. SPECIAL KISS raced four-wide leaving the turn, moved up three-wide commencing his bid leaving the backstretch but was outkicked. THE ALL BUTTON was slow to stride, raced in tight quarters leaving the grandstand side, rallied four-wide and lacked the kick needed. TEEPLAY set a placid pace, had no response when challenged and faded.
