KATHBALLU broke well, comfortably maintained inside position with the first flight without encouragement early, continued to save ground through the turn, put a head in front upper stretch, garnered a larger advantage late, enough left to hold off the runner up in the final strides. NATURAL WONDER quickly fell well back after the start, continued to trail through the turn in the two path, steered out widest past the furlong marker, finished well to be rapidly carving into the winner's margin in the waning strides. MARQUEE MISS broke in, with the pace from the start three wide, continued between rivals through the turn, raced on equal terms with the winner past the furlong marker, proved stubborn to the end in a gutty effort. D R C'S PRETTY SKY broke alertly, prompted the pace in the four path, lost some ground to the winner out of the turn, slowly getting back to that rival late. FANTASTIC STYLE brushed at the start when MARQUEE MISS broke in, was asked to keep up early, contested the issue between rivals and outside the winner through the turn, continued to do battle between rivals past the furlong marker, weakened in the late going. SUPER SAKS last to leave, prompted the pace while five wide into and through the turn, had little left in the late going.
