DR BLARNEY took control from outside early rivals, widened the lead into upper stretch while not asked for run and remained in hand through the lane. DESERT WONDER contested the early pace from inside rivals, couldn't match strides with the winner then was all out to hold the place. SAINT ALFRED broke very slow but in good order, chased outside along the backstretch then was closing late for minors but too late. GRADY chased outside along turn, not able to keep pace, tired. GOODBYEGUINNESSBOK chased leaders off inside, moved inside on turn, tired. This was a non-wagering event.
