Meet will feature fewer races, but hopefully more quality

By Brad Free

Among the frequent mistakes that horseplayers make are inadequate preparation and betting low-odds underlays. Del Mar's seven-week meet is a good time to address both. Even though school's out for summer, the handicapping homework is due opening day.

What type of races have been most predictable? What type are upset-prone? How often do shippers win? Which nuances emerge on turf? The questions apply to the 2019 summer meet, which begins in an unsettled racing environment.

The first six months of the year were problematic in Southern California. Santa Anita stopped racing for nearly a month in midseason due to safety issues, then had difficulty filling races even after going to three-day race weeks. Los Alamitos cut three days from its originally scheduled 12-day summer meet, and also had trouble filling.

Now the circuit moves to Del Mar, from July 17 through Sept. 2. And while the seaside track offers horseplayers a welcome change in scenery, Del Mar is hardly immune to the challenges facing the California racing industry.

This piece will address handicapping questions and chronicle changes Del Mar fans can expect this summer, including the most immediate – a reduced number of races. Del Mar will run fewer races this season than any recent summer.

FIELD SIZE

After opening day on July 17, Wednesday and Thursday cards will drop from eight races daily to seven. After opening week, Saturdays go from 10 races to nine; Sundays go from nine to eight. The reduction will represent a 9 percent decline if employed throughout summer and is mostly because of a horse shortage.

The Southern California horse population is down 15 percent from normal, according to Del Mar racing secretary David Jerkens, who sensed trouble in spring. Historically, the numbers are lowest in January and gradually increase to their highest in July. But the annual spring uptick did not materialize after Santa Anita temporarily shut down.

Several local trainers shipped strings to other circuits, including Phil D'Amato, Peter Miller, Jeff Mullins, and Doug O'Neill. Most are expected back for Del Mar. Owners such as Larry Best chose to campaign horses elsewhere; Best has a string in New York.

"Once there was a suspension of racing in March, where your numbers would typically increase when you get into the spring, [the numbers] went the other way," Jerkens said. "We wanted to recognize what we're facing and get ahead of it. We're kind of running four and a half days a week [instead of five]."

"As far as the reduction in races, people want quality," Jerkens said. "Nobody wants another five-horse field. We want to give the betting public the best cards possible under the safest environment possible."

For daily horseplayers, fewer races is not necessarily a bad thing. More important than total number is the number of races that are "playable" with full and competitive fields. Del Mar has a big act to follow: It averaged 8.7 starters per race last summer.

Del Mar will have a total pool of more than 2,600 horses to fill races this summer. More than 1,850 will be stabled on track, Los Alamitos will have more than 500, and San Luis Rey Downs should have more than 250.

The challenge for Jerkens is utilizing the inventory to produce quality cards over 36 days of summer racing. The challenge for horseplayers is knowing when to jump in, and when to step back.

Field size is a key element in wagering value, as indicated by median win payoffs during the 2018 summer meet. (Median means half higher, half lower.)

Del Mar summer 2018 $2 median win payoffs

5 runners:	$5.60
6 runners:	$6.40
7 runners:	$7.40
8 runners:	$9.40
9 runners:	$9.00
10 runners:	$8.40
11 runners:	$10.60
12 runners:	$15.20

The bigger the field, the higher the payoffs. A curious but explainable exception was a median in 10-runner fields that was lower than eight- and nine-runner fields. For now, last year's payoffs are a reminder that bigger fields produce bigger returns.

The low median in 10-runner fields last year was largely due to big fields in juvenile maiden races – 20 of the 61 races with 10 runners were for 2-year-old maidens. It is a big deal because 2-year-old maiden races have become a bonanza for favorites. It is a division in which big fields have not translated to big payoffs.

2-YEAR-OLDS

Maiden special weight sprint favorites (both sexes) went 10 for 16 in 2017, and again in 2018. That is a two-year total of 20 for 32, which translates to 62.5 percent winning favorites.

Perhaps it was an aberration; the trend will be monitored as summer unfolds. There will be plenty to follow, because Del Mar typically runs one open special-weight sprint each week for each gender. Trainer Bob Baffert usually leads the way. Baffert won 16 of the 32 special-weight sprints in 2017-18. (An accompanying story and chart details the 2-year-old population.)

Aside from the wagering aspect, summer 2-year-olds are always interesting from a pure sporting perspective. Who knows what star will emerge? Recent 2-year-olds that debuted at Del Mar include American Pharoah, Abel Tasman, Game Winner, and Songbird.

The 2019 season offers a twist that could shift the dynamics. Del Mar calls it a "Baby Bonus" – a 25 percent purse bonus in open maiden special weight races on dirt. To qualify for the bonus, the trainer must have fewer than 50 horses stabled in Southern California.

The objective is to "encourage our smaller outfits to get quality 2-year-old runners and enter them in our key building block events for our young horses," executive vice president for racing Tom Robbins stated in a prepared release.

In the case of a $61,000 maiden special weight race, the typical winner's share is 60 percent, or $36,600. With the baby bonus added, the winner's share could rise to $45,750. The bonus also applies to secondary awards, second through fifth place.

The baby bonus could be further enhanced by the “Ship and Win” bonus, which offers a 40 percent purse boost for a horse’s initial start at Del Mar (with an automatic $2,500 for simply making a start). For a 2-year-old that double-qualifies for the Baby Bonus and Ship and Win bonus, a $61,000 purse could become $100,650.

“We’re hoping to get owners and trainers with 2-year-olds from out of state interested when they see the monetary incentives, while at the same time encourage our local owners and trainers to go [out of state] and bring back 2-year-olds that could be double earners under our arrangement,” Robbins stated.

It sounds great for owners and trainers, and theoretically benefits horseplayers by creating more competitive maiden races for 2-year-olds.

For now, bettors should recognize that low-odds runners dominated maiden sprints for 2-year-olds the past two summers. In 2018, average field size for special-weight sprints was 9.2, yet the median payoff was just $3.80. In 2017, average field size was 9.0, and the median payoff $5.40.

While fields for 2-year-old maiden races typically are big, racing secretary Jerkens acknowledged a decline this summer in locals that are race-ready.

“Our 2-year-old numbers, in terms of works and actual number of horses, are down,” he said.

SHIPPERS

“The way I’m trying to make up for [the horse shortage] is the Northern California participation will be stronger this year,” Jerkens said. “And I’m expecting to see a bump in Ship and Win to help mitigate the decline we’ve encountered in Southern California.”

Trainers normally stabled elsewhere that are expected to compete this summer at Del Mar include James DiVito, Kevin Eikleberry, Quinn Howey, Shea Stuart, Isidro Tamayo, and Jonathan Wong.

The class disparity between Northern and Southern California circuits has diminished in recent years, and handicappers can be less hesitant to back Northern California shippers at Del Mar. However, a dose of skepticism is fitting after last summer’s results by horses whose most recent start was at Golden Gate.

The first month of the 2018 summer meet, an average of two Del Mar starters per day entered off starts at Golden Gate. They won 6 of 51, a reasonable win rate of 11.7 percent. However, win payoffs totaled just $59.80, a return on investment of $1.15 per $2.

Five of the six Golden Gate-to-Del Mar winners returned $9.80 or less; the highest payoff was $26.80 by Terrys Tom Cat. Though based in Northern California, he epitomized the Del Mar “horse-for-course” angle. Terrys Tom Cat, now 8, won a Del Mar turf race each of the past four summers.

If there is an anecdotal lesson from the small sample above, it is that Northern California shippers that “figure” to run well (i.e. low odds) often do run well. As for longshots, not so much. And the horse-for-course angle always is a key consideration at Del Mar.

SHIP AND WIN

Del Mar’s Ship and Win program was initiated in 2011 to attract horses to the summer meet. The program offers a purse bonus (stakes excepted) for runners whose most recent start was outside California and who have not raced in California for at least 12 months.

According to Del Mar, more than 1,100 out-of-state shippers started at Del Mar since the program began. The flat-rate bonus, and the purse bonus, increase this year. The flat rate is $2,500 for an initial start, regardless of finish. The purse bonus increases to 40 percent across the board (first through fifth).

The premium helps increase field size. The handicapping challenge is to identify which out-of-state shippers are more likely to win. A single-season review of 2018 suggests bettors tread lightly. (The following shipper statistics include horses based previously in California and merely returning from starts out of state.)

Last summer, 137 Del Mar starters entered off races in other states. Except for a high success rate from New York, out-of-state shippers mostly underperformed. The combined win total for horses whose most recent start was outside New York or California was only 7 wins from 109 starters; win payoffs totaled only $78.40.

Among the least productive ship-in tracks were Churchill Downs (shippers were 2 for 20 with a flat-bet loss); Arlington (0 for 9); Sunland Park and Keeneland (both 0 for 6).

Conversely, Belmont Park ship-in runners went 7 for 24; Aqueduct 1 for 3, and Saratoga 1 for 1. The combined total by runners with a last start in New York was 9 for 28, with a corresponding high ROI of $3.10. Other flat-bet profit tracks from last summer include Ellis Park (2 for 5), and Lone Star (1 for 5).

Although one season is a small sample on which to make plans for the season ahead, perhaps it is a good idea for bettors to be wary of shippers from lesser circuits. And who knows if Del Mar will attract as many out-of-state runners as previous summers.

Notwithstanding the recent safety record and overall ambience, Del Mar is challenged for the simple reason it is located in California. The state’s reputation took a hit during the beleaguered winter-spring meet at Santa Anita, and it has been more difficult this year for Del Mar racing officials to attract runners.

“Given the perception of what California racing is facing, recruiting efforts have been challenging to say the least,” Jerkens said. There is at least one good omen. “There is a lot of interest in our stakes program from out of state, which is a positive.”

The six Grade 1 races this summer include the six-furlong Bing Crosby, July 27; 1 1/16-mile Clement L. Hirsch for fillies and mares, July 28; 1 1/4-mile Pacific Classic and 1 1/8-mile Del Mar Oaks (turf) for 3-year-old fillies, both Aug. 17; seven-furlong Del Mar Debutante for 2-year-old fillies Aug. 31; and seven-furlong Del Mar Futurity for 2-year-olds on Sept. 2.

TURF RACING

Coast to coast, turf racing continues to expand. The same is true at Del Mar, where turf races accounted for an all-time high of 38 percent of total races last summer.

“The demand for turf is there,” Jerkens said. “That is the shift in American racing. Industrywide, racing secretaries all over have trouble filling races on the dirt. The direction of the game the past few years . . . [there are] more opportunities for turf categories.”

It shows up in field size, which is typically about one runner higher on turf than on dirt. Last summer, average field size on turf was 9.5 per race.

Want to cash a ticket on a high-odds winner at Del Mar? A big-field turf race is the place to look. Median payoff last year for a turf race with nine or more starters was $12.20. No fewer than 23 winners of such races paid $20 or more.

Best of all, they occur often – 92 of the 318 total races last summer (28 percent) were grass races with nine or more runners. To cash, all you have to do is find the winner. The fundamentals of turf handicapping should become relevant at Del Mar after six months on the speed-favoring turf course at Santa Anita.

The Del Mar grass course plays like a true course, which is to say late-runners win with regularity at the most often-used distance of one mile. Del Mar turf races tend to be won by closers, while Santa Anita turf races tend to be won by front-runners and pressers.

This is particularly noteworthy early in the meet, when Del Mar turf fields primarily comprise horses whose most recent start was on turf at Santa Anita. The two courses have dissimilar profiles.

At one mile on turf:

31 percent Santa Anita won by pacesetter (March 29 – June 23)

11 percent Del Mar won by pacesetter (2018 summer)

32 percent Santa Anita won from middle or back (March 29 – June 23)

52 percent Del Mar won from middle or back (2018 summer)

Generally speaking, turf route horses that carried their speed at Santa Anita are less likely to carry their speed in turf routes at Del Mar. Likewise, late-runners unable to make an impact at Santa Anita might find the closer-friendly course at Del Mar more conducive.

The 3-year-old turf horse Gregorian Chant may offer an opening-day opportunity. A closer, he was compromised by profile/race flow finishing fourth as the favorite in the 1 1/8-mile Cinema Stakes on June 2 at Santa Anita. If he shortens to one mile for the Oceanside Stakes on opening day, Gregorian Chant probably will be racing over a turf course beneficial to his running style.

Handicappers must review race flow on a case-by-case basis. For example, although Santa Anita's turf favored speed most of spring, come-from-behind runners dominated turf miles the final four days of the spring meet.

Of course, it is not always black and white. The turf profile dilemma will be tested when Ippodamia's Girl runs next. Racing one mile in the Grade 3 Wilshire Stakes on June 22 at Santa Anita, Ippodamia's Girl set a fast pace and finished fourth. It was a super effort by the front-runner. But will she face a potentially anti-speed course profile at Del Mar?

Only 6 of 55 turf miles last summer were won by the pacesetter, the highest payoff by a wire-to-wire winner was $13.80. Conversely, all 10 turf-mile winners that paid more than $20 were horses that rallied from off the pace (seven deep closers, three pressers).

For now, turf-route handicapping at Del Mar means a return to the basics – class, trips, and closing fractions are likely to be more important in summer at Del Mar than spring at Santa Anita.

TURF SPRINTS

Five-furlong turf sprints have become a staple of the Del Mar program; 29 were run last summer, most ever at a Del Mar meet. Turf sprints accounted for 9 percent of summer races, which is similar to the recent ratio at Santa Anita.

A handicapping twist this summer relates directly to Santa Anita. Until this year, Del Mar was the only California track to regularly run five-furlong turf races. That changed when Santa Anita abandoned the hillside course and moved turf sprints from 6 1/2 furlongs on the hill, to five furlongs on the flat, the same as Del Mar.

Theoretically, the Santa Anita turf-sprint revision should simplify evaluating Del Mar turf-sprint starters because most turf-sprint starters at Del Mar will recently have started at the same five-furlong distance at Santa Anita.

However, the dynamics of a five-furlong turf sprint at Santa Anita differ greatly from five furlongs on turf at Del Mar.

At Santa Anita, five-furlong turf sprints are dominated by speed. Since the middle of May, 66 percent of turf-sprint winners were positioned first or second after the first quarter-mile. Nearly half of the winners led at every call. Speed ruled, and closers rarely made an impact.

Del Mar turf sprints, by contrast, played fair last summer to all styles. Only 37 percent of turf-sprint winners were first or second after the opening quarter-mile; closers from the middle or back accounted for 34 percent of the winners.

Turf-sprint winners last summer came from every position. If the profile continues, one can expect more stretch-running winners at Del Mar than Santa Anita. Off-the-pace runners recently compromised by the speed-friendly profile at Santa Anita include Rayana, Sunrise Royale, Master Ryan, Gypsy Blue, Strictly Biz, and Ginger Nut.

Post-position data the past four years, including autumn meets, suggest inside posts hold the advantage at Del Mar. Posts 1-3 averaged 16 percent winners; post 4-12 averaged 9 percent. However, those raw statistics do not consider odds. Last summer's four highest-paying turf-sprint winners were from posts 11, 11, 7, and 6.

Baffert reloads with new crop of well-bred, expensive juveniles

By Brad Free

DEL MAR, Calif. – Does anyone stand a chance against the summer juggernaut trained by Bob Baffert? Perhaps other divisions are evenly matched, but when it comes to 2-year-olds at Del Mar, Baffert is tough to beat.

The past two summers, Baffert has won 16 of 32 maiden special weight sprints for 2-year-olds. He has won the Grade 1 Del Mar Futurity a record 14 times, and the Grade 1 Del Mar Debutante seven. Only D. Wayne Lukas has more Debutante wins (nine) than Baffert.

Will 2019 be the season of retribution? Not likely. Baffert trains a disproportionately high number of potential star 2-year-olds, including many on the accompanying chart. The group includes million-dollar purchases and high-class pedigrees, all with at least one thing in common: Those that debut at Del Mar will be ready to fire.

The past two summers, Baffert is 15 for 24 with debut 2-year-olds, including subsequent Grade 1 winners Game Winner, Roadster, and Chasing Yesterday. The chances are that another star will emerge in 2019, though it is hardly a foregone conclusion.

Trainer Simon Callaghan won the Debutante the past two years, and his Amalfi Sunrise enters summer as California's top filly. She won her debut by more than six with an outstanding 88 Beyer Speed Figure. Callaghan also trains Schrodinger, a promising colt who was just getting warmed up at five furlongs in his debut victory.

Amalfi Sunrise and Schrodinger are expected to run in the meet's first major stakes for 2-year-olds – the Grade 2 Sorrento for fillies on Aug. 3, and Grade 2 Best Pal open to either gender on Aug. 10.

Others also are established, including a pair trained by Doug O'Neill. Fore Left is 2 for 2 following his victory in the $150,000 Tremont Stakes at Belmont Park, while the filly Comical won her only start by six lengths at Santa Anita. Comical was entered in the Schuylerville Stakes on opening day at Saratoga.

Jorge Periban trains a California-bred already proven against open company. Phantom Boss shipped to Churchill Downs to win the Grade 3 Bashford Manor and could show up in the Best Pal or face statebred company in the $100,000 Graduation Stakes on Aug. 2.

The accompanying chart provides an early look at the 2-year-old division, and by the time the meet begins on July 17, it might require tweaking. Jerry Hollendorfer is listed as trainer for a half-dozen top prospects, including a half-sibling to champion Songbird sired by Triple Crown winner American Pharoah, but he will not be able to run horses under his name at the meet, according to a decision handed down by Del Mar.

First-crop sires listed include American Pharoah, Bayern, Carpe Diem, Commissioner, Competitive Edge, Conveyance, Daredevil, Fast Anna, Palace Malice, and The Big Beast.

Top Trainers

By Steve Andersen

The highly anticipated Del Mar meeting begins July 17, the focal point of the Southern California summer season and a destination for the circuit's leading stables.

The seven-week meeting, which runs through Sept. 2, can be the highlight of the year – if a stable has a productive late summer. In 2018, trainer Peter Miller led the way with 31 wins, 10 clear of runner-up Doug O'Neill. Those two will be back this year, although Miller has a division in Kentucky this summer.

Other trainers such as Bob Baffert, Richard Baltas, Phil D'Amato, and John Sadler are expected to have big seasons with their large stables.

Below is a look at 25 trainers expect to play important roles at Del Mar.

Bob Baffert

The massive stable will have its typical lineup of well-regarded 2-year-olds, and after the summer of 2018 there will be high expectations. In 2018, Baffert won 14 races from 44 starters, a 31 percent win rate. Of those 14 wins, 11 were with 2-year-olds and all of them won their first starts.

The Baffert team will be watched closely from the maiden races opening week to the Grade 1 races closing weekend – the Del Mar Debutante on Aug. 31 and the Del Mar Futurity on Sept. 2.

Last year, Baffert won the Del Mar Futurity with Game Winner, his only two-time juvenile winner of the meeting. Game Winner was later named champion 2-year-old male. Baffert's other wins were a maiden race with the 3-year-old Super Sol, and the Brubaker Stakes with Dabster.

Overall, Baffert had a weak meeting with older runners in 2018, going winless in graded stakes. His best results were second-place finishes in the Grade 2 San Diego Handicap with Dr. Dorr and the Grade 3 Cougar II Handicap with Hoppertunity.

In 2017, Baffert won with 5 of 15 first-time starters, so the trend is consistent. This is a stable that has had a diminishing number of runners in recent summers at Del Mar, with 19 wins from 77 runners in 2016 and 12 wins from 53 runners in 2017.

Understandably, the Baffert runners are strongly backed. Last year, the stable had a return on investment of $1.58 for each $2 bet.

Richard Baltas

Each year, the stable grows in prominence on the Southern California circuit – and nationally. In 2018, Baltas-trained runners earned a personal best of $5.53 million. Through July 7, Baltas is on course to surpass that figure, having won $3.5 million.

Baltas, who has one of the larger stables in Southern California, won the Queen's Plate on June 29 at Woodbine with One Bad Boy, and 12 stakes in California and Kentucky from Jan. 1 to June 23.

At Del Mar in the summer of 2018, Baltas had 16 wins from 105 runners, slightly less than the 20 wins from 110 runners in 2017 and 20 wins from 94 runners in 2016.

Of the 16 wins in 2018, nine were in allowance races with optional-claiming conditions or maiden special weight races. In the summer of 2017, he won 11 such races.

The missing element last year was a stakes win. Baltas was winless with 23 runners in stakes, including four second-place finishes and two thirds. He will have widespread participation at that level this summer.

This year, Baltas had a strong spring-summer meeting at Santa Anita from April 12 to June 23, winning with 18 of 85 starters. Bettors expected success, though, with an ROI of just $1.48.

During that span, Baltas had six stakes wins, including the Singletary and Cinema stakes with Neptune's Storm, a candidate for the Grade 2 Del Mar Derby on Sept. 1, and five wins in maiden races. Those maiden-race winners figure to be competitive in overnight races through the summer.

Jeff Bonde

Bonde will not be the most active of trainers at the Del Mar summer meeting, but this is a stable that has had good success in the last three years. Bonde won with 6 of 30 runners in the summer of 2016, with 4 of 26 starters in 2017, and with 5 of 27 runners last summer.

In the last three summers, the stable has been best in dirt races, winning a combined 14 races from 67 runners. On turf, Bonde has one win from 16 starters in that span.

Last summer, the five winners were two $20,000 claiming races for maidens, a $16,000 claimer, and two stakes – the CERF Stakes with Miss Sunset and the Del Mar Juvenile Turf with King of Speed. The stable had one win in the first week and four on the closing week.

Bonde has typically done well with 2-year-olds, winning with 3 of 11 juveniles in the summer of 2016 and 2 of 10 in 2017. Last year, King of Speed was his only 2-year-old winner from 13 starters.

Bonde had seven wins from 75 starters at Santa Anita earlier this year, a modest record. The stable had 13 second-place finishes and 13 thirds during that time. Of the seven wins, four were in maiden claimers. He won the Grade 2 San Vicente Stakes for 3-year-olds with Sparky Ville.

The stable was winless with its final 18 starters at Santa Anita, including a third-place finish by King of Speed in the Cinema Stakes for 3-year-olds on turf. King of Speed is a candidate for the $100,000 Oceanside Stakes on July 17 at Del Mar.

Simon Callaghan

Callaghan had a career-best summer at Del Mar in the summer of 2017, winning with 11 of 48 runners. He was less active last year, winning with 7 of 36 runners. Callaghan won the Grade 1 Del Mar Debutante, with Bellafina in 2018, his second consecutive victory in the race.

The stable has a fine 2-year-old prospect this year in Amalfi Sunrise, a candidate for the Grade 2 Sorrento Stakes for fillies at six furlongs on Aug. 3. Amalfi Sunrise won a maiden race June 23 at Santa Anita. Schrodinger, the winner of a maiden special weight at on June 30 Los Alamitos, is bound for the Grade 2 Best Pal Stakes at six furlongs on Aug. 10.

The 3-year-old fillies Hostess and Maxim Rate are candidates for graded stakes on turf for the division.

Last year, two horses accounted for four of the stable's seven wins – Bellafina also won the Sorrento Stakes, while Kazan won a maiden race and an optional claimer on turf and was later second in the Grade 2 Del Mar Derby.

Through the 2018 summer meeting, Callaghan won with 4 of 14 starters on dirt and 3 of 22 runners on turf. Those figures were comparable with statistics from the 2017 meeting – eight wins from 25 starters on dirt, and 3 for 23 on turf.

Last summer, the stable had a modest record in maiden special weight races, with Kazan the only winner of 11 runners. One strength was horses returning from layoffs of 31 to 60 days, with three wins from 10 starters.

Jack Carava

After disappointing results in a four-year period from 2013 to 2016, when he won six races from 108 runners at Del Mar summer meetings, Jack Carava's stable has rebounded the last two summers, winning with 6 of 26 runners in 2017, and 6 of 33 runners last year.

Last summer, the six wins were in claiming races or allowance races with claiming options. The stable had a remarkably even record, winning with 3 of 17 runners on dirt and 3 of 16 on turf.

Although the sample is small, Carava won with 2 of 3 horses making the switch from turf to dirt last summer. The stable also did well with routers, winning with 3 of 15 starters; with claimers, winning with 4 of 12 runners; and with horses racing after a break of 31-60 days, winning with 2 of 11 starters.

His record in sprints was an acceptable three wins from 18 runners.

Carava operates primarily a claiming operation, but he does have a few higher-quality horses owned by Red Baron's Barn and Rancho Temescal, notably Tartini, who was fourth in the Grade 3 American Stakes on June 23 at Santa Anita; and Zaffinah, who has been second or third in three turf stakes this year. Both are eligible for restricted turf stakes at Del Mar this summer.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, Carava had seven wins from 71 runners.

Carava has not won a stakes at Del Mar since Pure as Gold won the Grade 1 Bing Crosby Stakes for sprinters in 2006.

Vladimir Cerin

Cerin had a quiet 2018 summer meeting at Del Mar, winning with 3 of 42 runners compared to six wins with 40 runners the preceding year. The results have been erratic at times. He was winless with 30 runners in 2013 at the Del Mar summer meeting. In 2015, Cerin had a fine record of six wins from 30 runners.

Last summer, one of the victories occurred with Fahan Mura in the Osunitas Stakes. She was later third in the Grade 2 John Mabee Stakes. Calexman was third in the Oceanside Stakes and Grade 3 La Jolla Handicap. Those results helped Cerin's bottom line for the season.

In past seasons, the stable has been more consistent on turf, winning with 2 of 18 runners in the summer of 2017 and with 3 of 17 last summer. The stable won with 4 of 22 runners on dirt in 2017, but was winless with 25 starters on the surface last summer.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, Cerin won 17 races with 108 starters. The stable finished well, winning with three of its last four starters.

Fahan Mura won the Grade 3 Robert Frankel Stakes at Santa Anita in January. Otherwise, all of the wins at that track were in overnight races earlier this year. Fahan Mura was ninth in the Buena Vista Stakes at Santa Anita in February and resumed workouts in early July. A start at the end of the Del Mar summer meeting is a possibility.

Fahan Mura was Cerin's first stakes win at Del Mar since 2012.

Phil D'Amato

D'Amato won or tied for the training title at the 2016 and 2017 Del Mar summer meetings, but finished tied for fourth last summer with 16 wins from 111 runners. D'Amato won with 14 percent of his starters in 2018, a decline from a strong strike rate of 21 percent in 2016 (23 wins from 108 runners) and an 18 percent win rate in 2017 (18 wins from 98 runners).

This year, he figures to once again have a leading role in the standings, though D'Amato will have a small stable based at Ellis Park in Kentucky. At Santa Anita earlier this year, D'Amato had 32 wins. He had one of the most active barns at the track's spring-summer meeting, winning with 16 of 94 runners, good enough for fourth in the standings.

Turf horses have played a pivotal role in this stable's success. He won 10 races on turf at the 2018 Del Mar summer meeting from 75 runners.

The stable will be active in stakes this summer. The turf stayer Acclimate may run in the Grade 2 Del Mar Handicap on Aug. 17, a day before Bowies Hero could start in the Grade 2 Del Mar Mile. The Grade 2 Pat O'Brien Stakes at seven furlongs on Aug. 24 is a good fit for the Santa Anita stakes winner Air Strike.

One horse to keep an eye on for the end of the meeting is Commander, a French import who is under consideration for the Del Mar Juvenile Turf on Sept. 1.

Keith Desormeaux

Desormeaux's success at Del Mar this summer depends on a successful season with juveniles. He won five races in both the summer of 2017 and 2018. Three of the wins in 2017 and four last year were with juveniles.

In 2016, the statistics were even more pronounced. He won five races from 40 juvenile starters and six races from 50 starters overall.

The 2015 group of 2-year-olds included a maiden win by Exaggerator who won the Preakness Stakes the following season.

Last season, the stable was not successful at a high level. All five wins came with maiden claimers. In 2017, he won four maiden special weight races and one optional claimer. Desormeaux has not won a stakes at Del Mar since With Honors won the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf in 2016. Last year, the stable was 0 for 4 in stakes, although Synthesis was third in the Grade 2 Best Pal Stakes.

Desormeaux has had three promising 2-year-olds start this year without winning – Verified, who was second to the highly regarded Schrodinger on June 30 at Los Alamitos; Verb, who was third in the Grade 3 Bashford Manor Stakes on June 29 at Churchill Downs in his third start; and Mickelson, who was second via disqualification in a maiden race at Santa Anita in his debut on June 16. Mickelson finished third and was promoted one position after he was steadied with a sixteenth of a mile remaining.

Among 3-year-olds, Irish Heatwave, second in the Snow Chief Stakes for state-breds on turf at Santa Anita, is capable of winning this summer.

Neil Drysdale

Drysdale had a relatively quiet meeting at Del Mar last summer, with two wins from 28 starters. But his record at Santa Anita earlier this year – seven wins from 54 runners – was much better, and the stable finished the meeting with Grade 3 wins on consecutive days with Simply Breathless in the Wilshire Stakes on June 22 and Majestic Eagle in the American Stakes the following day.

Simply Breathless could run in the Grade 2 Yellow Ribbon Handicap on Aug. 3, while Majestic Eagle is a candidate for the Grade 2 Del Mar Mile on Aug. 18.

Drysdale has not been very active at Del Mar in recent seasons. He won four races from 31 runners in 2016 and had a comparable record of three wins from 30 runners last year.

This is a stable to follow on turf. Drysdale has not won a race on the main track at a summer meeting at Del Mar in 54 runners, since Bourbon Bay won the Grade 3 Cougar II Handicap in July 2011. Through that time, main-track races were not emphasized. The stable had five runners on dirt in 2016, seven in 2017, and six last summer. (The stable did have a winner on the main track at Del Mar at the 2016 autumn meeting).

The turf course is a different matter, with two to four wins each summer over the last four years. In 2017 and last summer, Drysdale won at least one stakes on turf. Vexatious won the CTT and TOC Handicap for fillies and mares at 1 3/8 miles on turf in 2018.

Peter Eurton

After a successful 2017 summer meeting at Del Mar, with six wins from 34 starters, the Eurton stable had a quieter year in 2018, winning with 4 of 42 runners. The wins were in overnight races. The stable's best result in a stakes was a third by Cheekaboo in the Solana Beach Stakes for statebred fillies and mares on turf.

On a brighter note, Eurton had 12 wins from 82 runners at the Santa Anita meeting, from Dec. 26 to June 23. Those horses were largely well regarded, with the stable producing an ROI of just $1.10 during that span.

The final three months of the meeting were quiet. Eurton had two winners on April 14, but was winless until Draft Pick won an allowance race with an $80,000 claiming option on June 15.

At Santa Anita, the stable was strongest on dirt, winning with 9 of 45 runners, compared to 3 of 37 runners on turf. This compares with the 2018 Del Mar summer meeting when Eurton had one win from 19 runners on turf.

For Del Mar, there are high hopes for the 2-year-old filly Powerfulattraction, who won a maiden special weight at Los Alamitos in June and is a candidate for the Grade 2 Sorrento Stakes on Aug. 3.

Overall, the stable has been quiet in 2-year-old races at Del Mar summer meetings, winning once with three starters in the last two years.

Eurton has two 4-year-olds in Core Beliefs and Draft Pick that could play a role in the Grade 2 San Diego Handicap on July 20.

Mark Glatt

After a career-best summer at Del Mar in 2017, in which he won 15 races and finished third in the standings, Glatt's stable cooled in the summer of 2018, winning with 6 of 61 runners. He was tied for 13th in standings. If there was a consolation, it was the number of horses that hit the board. Glatt had 10 seconds and 11 third-place finishes.

The stable won with 4 of 34 runners on dirt, and with 2 of 27 starters on turf.

Earlier this year, the stable had an excellent Santa Anita meeting, with 34 wins from 174 runners. The stable was slightly stronger there on dirt, winning with 22 of 90 runners compared to 14 of 84 starters on turf. Interestingly, the stable has won six stakes in the last year, all on turf. This year, Glatt has won four stakes, all in turf sprints.

This is a fairly well-balanced stable active at all levels. At Del Mar, the turf sprinter Eddie Haskell is a candidate for the Grade 3 Green Flash Handicap on turf on Aug. 17. There are high hopes for Sharp Samurai in a race such as the Grade 2 Del Mar Mile on Aug. 18.

This is a stable that does not do well with 2-year-olds at Del Mar, going winless with eight runners in 2017 and six runners last summer. The stable did have one win from five 2-year-old runners at Del Mar in the summer of 2016.

Glatt deserves extra consideration in claiming races at Del Mar. In 2018, Glatt won with 3 of 15 starters in claiming races, compared to three wins with 14 starters in claiming races at the 2017 summer meeting.

Bob HESS Jr.

Hess has divided his stable into Eastern and California divisions, and that seems to have affected his bottom-line results at Del Mar. As recently as 2014, he won 15 races at the Del Mar summer meeting. Last year, Hess won with 6 of 53 starters. For the first time since 2013, his stable did not have a positive ROI at the summer meeting, producing a modest return of $1.23.

The stable had 11 wins in 2015, six in 2016, and nine in 2017.

Last summer, his six wins were in overnight races, including two horses that were claimed away. This was a stable to follow on dirt, with five wins from 34 runners. That could be the same this summer. In the final month of the Santa Anita meeting, Hess won dirt races with Portal Creek and Fire When Ready who are expected to start in overnight races at Del Mar.

This is a stable likely to focus on overnight races. After winning three stakes at Del Mar in 2014, Hess is winless with seven starters in stakes in the last four summer seasons.

The stable does do well with juveniles at Del Mar summer meetings, winning with 2 of 12 runners in 2017 and 2 of 7 runners last year.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, Hess won with 9 of 84 runners, including 7 of 58 runners on dirt. His lone winner on turf was Zuzanna, who won twice and is expected to race at Del Mar in starter-allowance races or a first-condition allowance race.

Brian Koriner

Koriner had a career-best summer meeting at Del Mar in 2018, winning with 7 of 41 runners. The stable was in excellent form in the first three weeks of the season, winning five races.

The result was a far cry from three frustrating seasons earlier this decade when the stable was winless with 41 starters through the summers of 2012 to 2014.

Last year, Koriner won three maiden special weight races, two optional claimers, the Real Good Deal Stakes for statebred 3-year-olds with Take the One O One, and a maiden claimer.

The stable was strongest in dirt races, winning with 6 of 24 runners compared to one win with 15 starters on turf. Koriner was winless in five claiming races and won 3 of 10 starts with maiden special weight runners.

Take the One O One was the only success of six runners in stakes.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, Koriner had one stakes win – Spiced Perfection in the Grade 1 La Brea Stakes. She was later sold privately and is now trained by Peter Miller.

At Santa Anita, the stable had three winners in June, including maiden races with the 2-year-old California-bred fillies None of Your Biz and Unchain Her Heart, candidates for the CTBA Stakes at 5 1/2 furlongs on July 31.

Although the focus of these profiles has been largely on past Del Mar summer meetings, it is worth noting that Koriner had an outstanding record at the brief fall meeting at Del Mar last November, winning with 6 of 16 runners.

Andrew Lerner

Lerner, 30, won his first race at Del Mar two years ago when he had a six-horse stable. This year, he is taking a full stable of approximately 30 horses.

Lerner had an excellent season at Santa Anita earlier this year, winning with 11 of 36 starters. He won the first stakes of his career in the Bertrando Stakes on June 29 at Los Alamitos when the filly Queen Bee to You beat males. Queen Bee to You is a candidate for the $150,000 Solana Beach Stakes for California-bred fillies and mares at a mile on turf Aug. 9.

Last summer, Lerner had three wins from nine starters at Del Mar, all in claiming races.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, Lerner was excellent with runners on the main track, winning with 8 of 20 starters compared to three wins from 16 runners on turf. The stable won with 6 of 14 runners in claiming races and with 2 of 8 runners in allowance races.

The stable has inherited horses from other barns and excelled with such runners at Santa Anita, winning with 5 of 10 starters. The barn also is worth following with horses returning from layoffs of 31 to 60 days, winning with 3 of 9 runners at Santa Anita.

With such a small historical sample, this is a stable in its development in only its third full year in action. Judging from results earlier this year, the barn has every chance for a productive Del Mar.

Richard Mandella

Mandella's stable has had two quiet summers at Del Mar in recent years after successful seasons from 2014 to 2016, when the barn won 20 races from 101 runners. In 2017, the output slumped to four wins from 39 starters and to three wins from 39 starters last year.

In the last few years, Mandella has had his best results at Del Mar on dirt, winning with 4 of 25 runners in 2017 and 2018 compared to three wins from 53 runners on turf in the same span. In 2016, the pattern was reversed, with six wins from 22 runners on turf and only one win from 11 runners on dirt.

What makes this year intriguing is the stable's success at Santa Anita earlier this year, with 15 wins from 78 runners. The stable had four wins in February and May, and two in April. (Santa Anita had only a few racing days in March).

The stakes runners will merit considerable attention this summer. Omaha Beach, winner of the Arkansas Derby in April, is tentatively scheduled to run in the Shared Belief Stakes on Aug. 25. Anonymity, second in the Grade 2 Great Lady M. Stakes at Los Alamitos on July 6, is a candidate for the Grade 1 Clement Hirsch Stakes at 1 1/16 miles on July 28 or the Grade 3 Rancho Bernardo Handicap at 6 1/2 furlongs on Aug. 11.

United is a contender in the longer stakes on turf, such as the Grade 2 Eddie Read Stakes on July 21 and the Grade 2 Del Mar Handicap on Aug. 17.

Andy Mathis

Mathis had a career-best season at Del Mar in the summer of 2018, winning with 6 of 38 runners. His stable was in red-hot form on Labor Day weekend, winning with his final three starters of the meeting.

Mathis, who is based primarily in Northern California, has increased his presence at Del Mar in recent seasons, winning three races in 2015, five in 2016, and two in 2017.

Last summer, the stable won with 3 of 16 starters on turf and with 3 of 22 on dirt. The stable was stronger with claimers, winning with 2 of 11 runners, than it was in maiden claimers with one win in 10 starts.

Mathis is still in search of his first stakes win at Del Mar and has had only two runners in that category in recent years.

Mathis did not have any runners at Santa Anita earlier this year. He won with 18 of 124 runners at Golden Gate Fields at the meeting that ended in early June. Mathis was particularly strong on the synthetic main track there, winning with 16 of 96 runners. On turf, he had two wins from 28 runners.

Both of the wins on turf came from Mikes

Tiznow, a three-time winner this year who won the Albany Stakes at five furlongs on turf at Golden Gate Fields in his stakes debut June 8.

Michael McCarthy

Four years after the stable was winless with 16 starters at the Del Mar summer meeting, McCarthy is looked upon as a trainer to follow in many ways this summer. McCarthy tied for ninth in the trainer standings last summer, with seven wins from 36 runners. The stable won with 10 of 37 runners at Del Mar in the summer of 2017 for a robust ROI of $3.97, which fell to $1.46 last year.

That's a measure of the respect bettors have for this growing operation. In January, the McCarthy-trained City of Light won the $9 million Pegasus World Cup Invitational at Gulfstream Park in his final start before going to stud.

At the 2018 summer meeting, the seven winners were all in overnight races, including four with maidens. Interestingly, the stable won a $28,000 claimer with Ohio, who later won the Grade 1 Kilroe Mile in March, and an optional claimer with Liam the Charmer, who won the Grade 2 John Henry Turf Championship last September.

Last year at Del Mar, the stable won five races from 14 runners in dirt races and two turf races from 22 runners.

Among stakes this summer, there are hopes for the 4-year-old filly Paved, unraced since December; the 3-year-old filly Vibrance, who was third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last November; and Over Emphasize, third in the Grade 2 Honeymoon Stakes for 3-year-old fillies at Santa Anita in June.

The stable has yet to win a summer stakes at Del Mar, but did win the 2014 Bob Hope Stakes for 2-year-olds with No Problem at the autumn meeting.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, McCarthy had seven wins from 61 runners.

Peter Miller

Miller was the runaway leader at the 2018 summer meeting with 31 wins, an achievement he said in late June he does not think he can duplicate. This year, Miller has a division in Kentucky, and the diversification will affect his ability to score a high number of wins at the summer meeting, he said at the time.

By its standards, Miller's stable struggled at the Santa Anita meeting that ended June 23, winning with 25 of 160 starters who were heavily bet. The ROI on those runners was a modest $1.08. He had only four wins after the first of April, and none after May 26. The stable was in better form during the brief Los Alamitos summer meeting.

At Del Mar last summer, Miller had four stakes wins, including the Green Flash Handicap with Stormy Liberal, the eventual champion turf male. The same race is a goal this year for Stormy Liberal on Aug. 17.

When the stable is clicking, it can be tough to beat. At Del Mar last summer, Miller won with 26 percent of his starters, for an ROI of $2.52. The 31 wins was a personal best at a Del Mar summer meeting.

The 2018 summer season had balanced results, with seven wins from 28 runners in claiming races, and six wins from 24 2-year-old runners. The stable had 16 wins from 58 starts on dirt, and 15 wins from 58 starts on turf.

However, the lack of wins in California, particularly at Santa Anita, in the spring and early summer this year remain a concern. Miller won six races in June, all at Churchill Downs and Ellis Park.

Steve Miyadi

With limited runners, Miyadi has had successful summers the last two years at Del Mar, winning with 5 of 27 runners in 2017 and with 4 of 28 runners last year. In the last four summers, the stable has focused almost entirely on dirt races, winning with 16 of 119 runners. Miyadi was winless with 10 runners on turf in that span.

The barn deserves particular attention in maiden-claiming races, having won three such races at Del Mar in each of the last two summer seasons. The overall highlight in that span was a win in the Real Good Deal Stakes with Mr. Hinx in 2017.

This summer, the barn has a contender in the Real Good Deal Stakes for 3-year-old California-bred sprinters on July 27 with Lieutenant Dan, a stakes winner at Santa Anita in April. Lieutenant Dan was third in the Snow Chief Stakes at 1 1/8 miles on turf June 22.

The stable had a good June at Santa Anita, winning four races. Overall at Santa Anita, Miyadi won 10 races with 62 runners.

In recent weeks, the stable has had several runners finish second or third in maiden races, suggesting the streak of success in those races could continue this summer. In the last few years, Miyadi has done well at Del Mar with horses making their first starts for the stable, too.

Lastly, Miyadi has won three races with seven first-time starters in the last two summers at Del Mar. This is from a barn that does not frequently work horses quickly.

Jeff Mullins

Mullins had his best Del Mar in nearly a decade in 2018, winning with 12 of 57 starters who earned $549,060 in prize money. It was his highest number of victories since he had 13 wins in 2009. The 2018 stable was led by the 3-year-old stakes winners River Boyne and Tatters to Riches and had a strong ROI of $2.26.

The strength came in dirt races, with seven wins from 17 runners, compared to five wins from 40 starters on turf.

By comparison, Mullins had two wins at Del Mar in the summer of 2017 and four to six winners in the preceding four summers.

Earlier this year, Mullins had 10 wins from 76 starters at Santa Anita. He was one of several trainers who split his barn, sending a division to Kentucky, where he had won two races through July 1, in the spring and early summer.

The stable had a quiet patch in California through the late winter and spring, going from Feb. 23 to June 1 without a winner, a period that included three weeks without any races at Santa Anita in March.

Through May and June at Santa Anita, Mullins had several horses run well in maiden races or allowance races, suggesting the stable has an opportunity to do well in overnight races in those categories through the early part of Del Mar. Seven of the wins at Del Mar in 2018 were in maiden races.

Last summer at Del Mar, the barn did well with horses returning from layoffs of 31 to 60 days, winning four races with five second-place finishes from 21 runners.

Doug O'Neill

O'Neill has won four training titles at Del Mar summer meetings and was a clear second last year with 21 wins, 10 fewer than Miller. For O'Neill, 21 wins from 156 starters was his highest win total at the meeting since he won 24 races in 2013 and the most runners he had during a summer meeting since he ran 164 horses that won 23 races in 2007.

In 2017, the stable won 13 races with 117 starters, two more wins than in the summer of 2016.

The stable has always been among the most active on the circuit. At Santa Anita earlier this year, O'Neill won 52 races from 304 runners.

Last summer at Del Mar, O'Neill won 13 races from 91 runners on dirt, and eight races with 65 runners on turf. The stable was particularly strong with claimers, winning with 9 of 31 starters and to a lesser extent with second-time starters winning three races from 20 runners.

The stable is typically well backed in 2-year-old races. Last year, O'Neill had seven wins from 58 runners in juvenile races, with a modest ROI of $1.27. The stable's stakes record was poor – one win from 23 runners.

This summer, there are several promising juveniles to follow, notably the fillies Fore Left, who won the Tremont Stakes at Belmont Park in June, and Comical, a maiden race winner at Santa Anita. The California-bred 2-year-old filly Acai won her debut and resumed workouts in late June. Scoring was promoted from second to first in a maiden race after being hampered by a rival and could start in a stakes for California-breds.

Mike Puype

Puype had a quiet season at Del Mar last summer, winning three races from 38 runners, his lowest win total at a summer meeting since 2007. The stable had six second-place finishes and five thirds in 2018.

By comparison, the stable had 12 wins from 79 runners at the 2015 Del Mar summer meeting, dropping to six wins in 2016 and five wins in 2017.

For a stable that works on behalf of several breeders, this trend can reverse quickly.

The three wins at Del Mar last summer occurred in overnight races. Puype was strongest in claiming races, winning two races from 11 runners. Two of the three wins were on turf, the continuation of a trend in recent years. Puype had three wins from 17 runners on turf in the summer of 2017.

Overall, Puype's statistics were on the upswing at the Santa Anita meeting earlier this year when the trainer won with 11 runners from 79 starters who produced a healthy ROI of $2.32. The stable had balanced results, with five wins on dirt and six on turf.

There are indications the stable could be set for an active Del Mar. Puype did not have any runners in the final three days at Santa Anita – from June 21 to 23 – and had only six runners in the first 16 days of that month. He raced sparingly at the Los Alamitos summer meeting in recent weeks.

At Santa Anita, Puype had two wins in January, February, and April, three wins in May, and one in December and June.

John Sadler

Sadler has won three training titles at the summer meeting in the last 12 years, most recently in 2013, when he won 27 races from 151 starters. In recent seasons, results have been mixed, with an emphasis on quality.

Sadler won 11 races from 62 runners in the summer of 2016, only nine races from 68 starters at the 2017 summer meeting, and 15 wins from 64 runners last summer. The highlights of the 2018 meeting were the top-class stakes wins by Accelerate in the Grade 1 Pacific Classic, and two Grade 2 wins by Catalina Cruiser in the San Diego and Pat O'Brien handicaps.

This year, the stable will be active at many levels, notably stakes. Catalina Cruiser is scheduled to run at Del Mar, having won the True North Stakes on June 7 at Belmont Park in his 2019 debut.

At the 2018 Del Mar meeting, Sadler's 15 wins consisted of 10 wins from 38 runners on dirt and five wins from 26 starters on turf. As mentioned, the stable had a dynamite season in graded stakes, winning with 8 of 17 runners. That may be difficult to duplicate this year at such a high-quality meeting.

Runners such as the 4-year-old turf filly Ollie's Candy, the older horse Gift Box, the main-track marathoner Campaign, the turf-sprint filly Ginger Nut, the turf miler Catalina Cruiser give the stable remarkable depth.

The stable did not have a significant presence with 2-year-olds last summer, winning with 2 of 8 runners.

Bill Spawr

The 2018 summer meeting at Del Mar was a forgettable seven weeks for the Spawr stable, with only one win in 18 starts. It has happened before – the barn was 1 for 24 in 2014 – but in most recent years the results have been better.

While Spawr will not contend for the title, he did win five races from 21 runners in 2017, enough to merit attention and respect from bettors. Last summer, the stable's win came with Ransomed in a $25,000 claimer. In 2017, the five wins were in three claiming races, an optional claimer, and the Grade 3 Rancho Bernardo Handicap with Skye Diamonds.

At summer meetings from 2015 to 2017, Spawr was strongest on dirt, winning with 14 of 98 runners compared to 5 of 36 on turf. The barn excelled with horses returning from layoffs of 31 to 60 days, with eight wins from 41 runners. The stable has always been highly regarded for its work with claimers. During that three-summer span, Spawr won with 9 of 71 runners in claiming races and with 4 of 19 horses having their second starts after being claimed.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, Spawr was outstanding, winning with 13 of 51 starters. The stable often employs Tiago Pereira on leading mounts. At the end of the meeting, Spawr won with four of his last 10 starters, including a win in the Dream of Summer Stakes for California-bred fillies and mares with Starr of Quality, who is scheduled to start at Del Mar.

Jonathan Wong

Wong will have a stable of approximately 15 horses at Del Mar this summer, his largest presence at the meeting. In the last four years, Wong has had occasional runners at Del Mar summer meetings with enough success to merit attention.

Wong won with 2 of 6 runners last summer and with 2 of 5 starters in 2016. Wong was winless with one runner in the summer of 2017.

At Santa Anita earlier this year, Wong won with 2 of 12 starters, including Our Silver Oak in the Snow Chief Stakes for statebred 3-year-olds on turf. Our Silver Oak is scheduled to start at Del Mar this summer.

Wong had a blockbuster first half of the year at Golden Gate Fields, winning the training title for the track's marathon meeting that stretched from Dec. 26 to June 9. Wong won 90 races from 318 starters, an impressive strike rate of 28 percent. Perennial leader Jerry Hollendorfer was a distant second with 42 wins.

At Golden Gate Fields, Wong raced primarily on the synthetic main track, winning 77 races from 267 runners, compared to 13 wins from 51 runners on turf. This is a stable that thrived with claimers at Golden Gate Fields, winning with 63 of 196 runners.

Wong had comparable success with sprinters – 44 wins from 158 starters – as he did with routers – 46 wins from 160 runners.

The stable was winless with five first-time starters and had two wins from 11 runners in maiden special weight races.
