SEIZE THE GREY vied between rivals early, settled off of the pace on the backstretch, bid between horses leaving the turn, exchanged bumps with WHO DEY near the three-sixteenths pole, tacked inward to find room, split rivals, reeled in VLANOS inside the furlong marker and gamely edged clear. NASH tracked five wide, moved up to engage the leader leaving the turn, loomed large entering the stretch, kept on well but was unable to resist the winner. VLAHOS disputed the pace three wide, forged a clear lead and angled in leaving the turn, fought on gamely but grudgingly gave way in the final yards. WHO DEY settled between horses, took closer order through the turn, tipped out five wide, swapped bumps with SEIZE THE GREY with three-sixteenths to run, shifted out to be clear, continued on willingly but wasn't quite good enough. TOP CONOR broke out and soundly bumped FROSTY INDULGENCE at the start, was hustled along five wide, ranged into striking distance leaving the turn, was bumped again when WHO DEY came out near the three-sixteenths pole, churned on but failed to make headway. CARBONE was hustled along in mid pack, angled out entering the stretch, kept on fairly well but failed to threaten. BEELINE was forwardly placed along the inside, tipped out entering the stretch, but went evenly between horses. GUANARE was unhurried, settled saving ground, angled out and advanced between horses. NORTHERN FLAME was unhurried, wheeled out eight wide into the stretch, but passed only the tiring ones. OTTO THE CONQUEROR prompted the pace along the inside to the stretch and tired. GETTYSBURG ADDRESS was allowed to settle, circled eight wide into the stretch but was never a factor. FROSTY INDULGENCE was bumped hard at the start and never recovered.
