SKELLY broke back, moved up to vie three wide, shook clear in the turn, maintained daylight through the lane while being kept to task. MISH off the early pace and the inside, made a three wide move to be closest to the winner into the stretch, chased that one past the furlong marker, could do nothing more with that rival late, clearly second best. PAYNE lacked speed, dropped to the inside to save ground through the turn, improved upper stretch, no match for the top two, clear of the others. MAHOMEY off a step slow, four wide out of the turn, went evenly through the lane to finish up evenly. PERFECT DUDE four wide when evenly paced through the turn, also lacked a closing rally. RUGGS flashed brief speed along the inside, faltered in the turn. EDGE TO EDGE vied up front while inside the winner and between foes, backed up as well.
