Ch. g, (Apr), by Belardo-Ire - Magnifica, by Mizzen Mast. Trainer D'Amato Philip. Bred by Mighty Universe Ltd (Ire).

GOLD PHOENIX (IRE) hugged the rail stalking the pace into the final turn, came out later on that bend, bid between foes then bumped with ROCKEMPEROR in upper stretch, responded between and gained lead in final 50 yards then stubbornly lasted under strong handling. PRINCE ABAMA (IRE) five way early while unhurried, angled over and chased two wide, shifted back out on final bend, was fanned six wide into the stretch, bumped with inside rival in midstretch, responded gamely and still closed strongly in latest stages from outside to gain second while narrowly missing the top spot. PLANETARIO (BRZ) was off step slow, reserved while taken to the inside, patiently chased along the rail to final turn, waited for room behind traffic on that bend, tipped out into the lane, shifted out further, found seam on four path and between rivals, bumped with outside rival then closed from between rivals and lost narrow decision. OFFLEE NAUGHTY stalked from the inside, came off the fence on the final turn, moved up three wide into the stretch, bumped with rival in upper stretch and went willingly to the wire. BALLADEER stepped to the front, set uncontested pace from along the rail while rank early in the stretch for the first time, resisted when challenged in upper stretch, continued gamely from the inside to deep stretch then gave ground grudgingly. ROCKEMPEROR (IRE) chased two wide and outside winner then keenly between rivals in middle stages, was taken to the rail on final turn, lacked room behind rivals into lane, came out bit looking for room, bumped with GOLD PHOENIX in upper stretch, failed to find needed room then finished behind wall of rivals. DICEY MO CHARA (GB) pressed the early pace, continued two wide, stalked three wide and outside winner into the stretch and weakened in the drive. WAR AT SEA chased four wide early, continued three wide through the backstretch and outside rival to final turn, was caught four wide entering the stretch and weakened.
