Ch. f, (May), by Curlin - Summer Solo, by Arch. Trainer Casse Mark. Bred by Payson Stud Inc (Ky).

SOLO ALBUM went quickly to the lead, set the pace under light rating tactics racing inside and shadowed by a rival, drifted out a bit in mid- to late-stretch and just held under steady handling. FOREVER DIXIE settled at the rear, rallied in behind just off the inside in upper to mid-stretch, altered out nearing the sixteenth pole seeking room and continued to gain from between runners but just missed. FASHIONABLY FAB settled mid-pack two to three wide, moved rapidly splitting rivals at the five-sixteenths and shifting five wide by the quarter pole, loomed a threat at the top of the stretch but kicked on evenly late while being brushed very lightly near the sixteenth pole. OCEAN CLUB pressed the eventual winner from outside, drifted out turning for home, brushed with a rival in late stretch, was outkicked. RO TOWN reared and bumped a rival at the start, advanced keenly inside against the rider's restraint who tapped on the brakes in behind foes at the three-quarters, saved ground throughout, kept on up the rail in late stretch but needed more. BATUCADA was a bit keen on the first turn moving forward four wide, stalked the leading pair up the backstretch, was ridden along by the three-eighths, failed to rally. TITO'S CALLING was bumped hard and bobbed at the start, angled in then switched out off the rail bringing up the rear, failed to make a bid.
