B. g, (Mar), by Prime Attraction – Old Cooksville, by Weather Warning. Trainer Buntain Angus. Bred by Kanny Ng (Ont-C).

UNBRIDLED WEATHER bumped with a rival at the start but nevertheless had the early lead under mild coaxing, was soon overtaken and pressed the new leader up the backstretch, engaged that one putting a short head in front at the top of the stretch, dispatched that one after a duel and held an outside foe under steady handling. AWESOME RAINBOW was forced out and lightly bumped after the start, had forward position tracking in behind, was mostly two to three wide before angling out five deep at the top of the stretch, gained steadily and slowly but was held off and missed. KEKOA was a bit reluctant to load, chased three to four wide between runners, angled eight wide at the top of the stretch, gained steadily late. MY BOY BRUCE soon led, set the pace inside hounded by the eventual winner, duelled with that one leaving the turn, yielded in the stretch. DARK SCREEN broke awkwardly, was held up under rating tactics in behind runners off the pace, advanced two to three wide on the turn shifting in a bit at the top of the stretch, was in behind and within striking distance in upper stretch but evened out. SHADOW REALM bumped a rival after the start, chased from inside, altered out at the top of the stretch, failed to rally. RIDE FOR THE PURSE settled off the pace racing outside, was mostly three to five wide, failed to menace. MAGIC POWER bumped with a rival at the start, was within range outside three to four deep midway on the turn, floated seven wide into upper stretch and faded. HEARD A GHOST broke outwardly then came back in before being forced out again soon after, trailed while lacking speed, was never near enough to threaten.
