Ch. f, (Apr), by Street Boss - Dazzle, by Twirling Candy. Trainer Asmussen Steven M. Bred by Jack Swain III (Ky).

ACCOMPLISHED GIRL was well-positioned stalking in behind off the inside, shifted in and made a rapid move up the rail to take the lead at the five-sixteenths, edged clear by the quarter pole coming out off the fence in upper stretch, was kept to the task and held. CUPIDS CRUSH appeared to hit the gate, was unhurried at the back, angled out leaving the turn then again in upper stretch, was flying late. HOLLYWOOD WALK stalked in behind from off the rail, shifted in once in upper stretch, kept on inside but needed more. ALLA BREVE settled off the pace two to four wide, came out eight wide and gained mildly late from between runners. CECILE brushed a rival at the start, chased from outside racing four to five wide, took closer order on the turn to be within striking distance, lost ground turning for home then kept on evenly in the stretch. OFF RAMP was brushed at the break, raced about mid-pack three to four deep, came out seven wide turning for home, ran on evenly. ALL I WANT IS YOU settled off the pace and near the inside, came out in upper stretch then back in, rallied through traffic in the stretch weaving around runners but was too little too late. CLOUDWALKER chased from inside, failed to rally. BOSSERATI sprinted to the front vying inside a runner then moving clear to set the pace from off the rail, came up empty in the stretch. MOONLIT LADY pressed the early pace then chased before edging nearer between foes three to four wide midway on the turn to challenge, drifted out a bit leaving that bend, faded in the lane. EVER SO SWEET (IRE) was near mid-pack off the fence in the two to three path and not a factor. SUGAR BEE was very reluctant to load, raced outside toward the rear mostly four to seven wide, was empty in the stretch.
