B. c, (Apr), by Maclean's Music – Southern Girl, by Tapit. Trainer Crichton Rohan. Bred by Bridlewood Farm (Fla).

MACHO MUSIC set the early pace while in the two path, pressured to the outside by P FOUR entering the turn, shook clear by the quarter pole and then drew off leaving the turn while on the left lead and drifting in towards the rail while still widening the margin while being ridden out to prove much the best. P FOUR stalked the early pace from the outside, pressed the winner three wide on the turn but could not keep pace nearing the quarter pole and then proved to be no match for that rival while holding on to the place award gamely. CAJUN VENOM tracked the pace on the inside and saved ground on the turn but and was out-kicked for the place award. MAD HOUSE tracked the early pace from between rivals, moved out leaving the five furlong marker and made a four wide advance on the turn but weakened in the lane. RIP RIDING AWAY stalked the early pace in between rivals, three wide on the turn and weakened. CENTERFOLD GUY was reserved early on the inside and lacked a rally.
