LUYV took a bump from SASSI STRUTTER at the start and was put in a bit tight, rushed into the early mix but settled off the pace, lost a bit of ground on the turn then responded when set down near the quarter pole, wore down MISS PRIORITY, and pulled clear in the final yards. MISS PRIORITY hustled to the front from the inside, was briefly shadowed by FLASHY MEG but went clear on the turn, was confidently handled into the stretch but outkicked in the final stages while barely holding the place. SIX STRING was up close in the initial stages then dropped off the pace before the turn, rallied three wide into the stretch and finished up well but ran out of time. WON DAY stalked three wide then launched a bid from the three furlong pole, had every chance and loomed mid-stretch but could not find the winning kick and went unplaced. BLESSED ASSURANCE lacked any speed and was well behind in the early stages, saved ground and finished with some interest while never a serious threat. SASSI STRUTTER broke outward and bothered LUYV after the start then steadied early on the backstretch run, lugged out on the turn and steadied while the rider steered out of traffic, came six wide into the stretch and was mildly gaining. FLASHY MEG was up close through the turn then pulled up quickly near the quarter pole, was vetted and transported from the track via the equine ambulance.
