RHAENYRA broke a steps low from the inside stall to begin, quickly recovered while hustled right after to seize command on the fence by the half, moved well increasing the advantage around the turn, opened up at the furlong marker some more and kept on going through the finish line. SU LEGADO VIVE had an inside trip tracking the lead pair, edged up on the fence with a quarter mile left to run, shifted outside to be three wide at the top of the lane and closed in belatedly to get up in the shadow of the wire for the runners up share. ZIPPY GAMBLE could see the field settling on the rail along the back straight, could not progress while saving ground around the bend, had a smart rally on the fence with a furlong from home and charged late to just get the show award at the finish line. EXECUTIVE SUCCESS had a poor start while first breaking out then stumbling leaving the gate, recouped in an instant to have the lead early on down the backside, relinquished the front end to the winner inside by the half, shadowed the frontrunner outside around the turn, started to give way trying to fight up top at the quarter pole, chased the leader on the wrong lead in upper stretch and folded between foes in the final few strides to be on the losing end of a three way picture for the place money. SOUPERGIRL was pushed out by the stablemate at the start, tracked the lead pair while outside another rival down the backside, travelled three wide on the turn making little movement and while in the four path down the lane could not get involved in the late stages.
