ZIP START stalked the pace two wide under a very easy tempo, well in hand approaching the quarter pole, given her que accelerated quickly widened the margin into the lane, drew away under mild urging through the final sixteenth. SUMMON THE GLAM raced off the pace around the first turn, inched up five wide down the back stretch, cleared the field around the second bend, only one to catch leaving the furlong marker, chased on willingly through the wire, second best. ITALIAN SONG settled into stride off the topflight down the backside, quickened between runners leaving the quarter pole, unable to switch leads through the lane, evened out under the wire. OVER THE BULL raced off the pace to far turn, trailer leaving the quarter pole, circled three wide into the lane, bid flattened out through the final stages. OUR STREET ANGEL broke sharp, jostled while in tight around the first turn, settled into stride inside for the run into the second bend, quickened to be stopped cold by fading front runner, unable to recover came home empty, after a brutal trip. OUR MISS CROSSBOW broke sharp, set the pace along the rail into the far turn, retreated through the lane.
