RISING INFLATION behind the pace while in the two path, crept closer late backstretch, lodged a rail bid through the second turn, long, extended drive, firm handling, determined late to prove best. NORAH G showed the way into the first turn while in the three path, continued to show the way up the backstretch, allowed the winner the rail second turn, responded when called on, long stretch duel, proved stubborn to the end. GET READY GAL between horses in the first turn when off the pace, asked along late in the backstretch, came three wide for the drive, no threat to the top two. DEROUTANTE lacked speed while racing toward the inside early, continued to save some ground in the second bend, lacked a serious closing response. JUS PRESS STAR five wide into the first turn, worked way to the three path onto the backstretch, prompted the runner up into the far turn then began to give way.
