NOTABLE SPEECH (GB) was bothered at the start and away slowly then encouraged forward inside heading to the first turn coming out a bit but now in range of the leaders and near mid-pack, stalked up the backstretch from off the fence, bided time through the far turn, swung five deep turning for home, kicked on explosively when set down and drove past a sixteenth out. MY BOY PRINCE moved clear shifting in entering the first turn, set the pace inside, was no match for the winner, held the place. GAS ME UP stalked two to three wide in good position, kept on evenly. NAP TOWN settled at the back shifting in, saved ground, came out six wide, kept on to gain some. ONE STRIPE (SAF) broke inwardly bothering a rival, was in tight early dropping back and caught between foes three to five wide, dropped back steadily up the backstretch, came again in the stretch to improve inside a foe but off the fence. WIN FOR THE MONEY was in a bit tight in the early going, forced wide racing four to six deep, was never near enough to threaten. STANLEY HOUSE was in tight steadying slightly entering the first turn, tracked the leaders from inside racing up close midway up the backstretch, weakened in the stretch. WYOMING BILL was forwardly-placed stalking three to four wide, asked for more at the five-sixteenths, dropped back in the stretch and faded. HUNT MASTER was taken back between runners early steadying slightly when in tight about the six- and one-half, raced three to four wide early and up the backstretch, gained to mid-pack but dropped back and failed to rally.
