PEACH TIE disputed the pace between horses for a half mile, asserted herself leaving the turn to open a clear lead, was under urging in the stretch, switched to her right lead near the eighth pole and eagerly increased her advantage. JUST PHILTORED hugged the inner rail dueling with the winner through the opening half mile, failed to keep pace leaving the turn, swung out near the eighth pole and weakened. SLEWPERSTITUS hopped at the break, prompted the pace from the three path and weakened leaving the turn.
