WITT'S LIL RINGER broke sharply, established a clear lead early, extended the margin through the turn, then held sway under steady handling and intermittent urging to prevail. KISS MY DICE chased the pacesetter and eventual winner to the stretch, kept on well to outfinish the rest and take down the second prize. DOUBLEBARREL VINNY broke a step slow, raced near the back to the stretch, then found another gear late and finished up well to gain third. BELLA BLU MOON was hustled to get into the early mix, settled in behind the pace, dropped back, then improved in the stretch while never a serious threat. AUNT PENNY raced in mid-pack, then was outfinished in the stretch. HARVEY'S FINNISH was the trailer to the stretch, then lacked a meaningful rally and was unable to improve. TEXAS SPEED QUEEN veered out sharply after the start, pressed the pace three-deep, then weakened in the stretch.
