ZABEEL CHAMPION (GB) was unhurried early, racing in hand through 15 of 16 fences, rushed to contention, landing fifth at the final, and rallied in the stretch for the win. SWORE led through all 16 fences but could not hold back ZABEEL CHAMPION (GB) in the stretch. ZIGGLE POPS (GB) rated early, gained position after the 10th fence, moved to contention before the 15th, landed second after the final but lost position in the stretch. FIL DOR (FR) raced close up, lost position after the 14th fence, bid before the final to land fourth and held position. JAMES DU BERLAIS (FR) ran evenly, increased speed with the field after the 14th fence, gained to enter the stretch in third but could not match the pace of nearby rivals. LYDFORD (GB) raced out the back, bid before the final to gain position, then flattened. ZANAHIYR (IRE) started midpack, kept touch with the leaders, moved to contention before the 12th fence, faded before the final and had no stretch rally. SWEET WILL (IRE) kept touch with the leaders for 14 fences, then weakened. ABAAN trailed, bid after the 12th to move into contention, then faded quickly before the final. VAE PATRON (FR) stalked the leader, dueled with SWORE after the 13th fence, weakened, pulled up after the 15th and walked off.
