BUZZED BY A TIGER raced three or four wide the entire trip, closed in with good resolve down the lane, and was along in time. PORT ELLEN (IRE) raced two-wide, always in range of the lead, stayed on well to battle for the win down the stretch, but was unable to get by. MOUNT PELLIAR was well placed early on, kicked on up the inside through the stretch run, but was outfinished. RUN BABA RUN settled near the back, then lacked the needed late response. THE LAIR led the way for a mile, then gave way before the last turn, and weakened.
