TRIPLE CHELSEA settled in hand three deep, tipped out further with three-sixteenths to run, quickened under left handed urging, reeled in LADY AURELIA and edged clear. LADY AURELIA stalked the pace three wide, launched a bold bid entering the stretch, forged a narrow lead nearing the furlong marker, kept on well but was unable to resist the winner. MORTICIA contested the pace along the inside, but flattened in the final furlong and settled for the minor award. EXCESSIVESPENDING settled saving ground, shifted out leaving the turn, kicked on and was making up ground. JENNIFER LYNNETTE was allowed to settle, angled out entering the stretch to be clear, but lacked the needed late response. STORM THE HILL came away a step slow, was unhurried into stride and failed to threaten. THERE'SYOURTROUBLE was forwardly placed along the inside, but came up empty leaving the turn and faded. LADY TO THE MAX was never a factor. BRAVE DAISEY was away alertly, angled in to set the pressured pace, but was through before going a half and dropped out.
