SHAMROCK ROSE moved three wide into the first turn to claim the spot closest to the pacesetter, responded readily to grab the lead from outside STARDOZA near the quarter-pole, quickly drew off under heavy pressure, and continued to run up the score geared down late. STARDOZA went up to take command a few strides away from the gate, rated along through an even clip inside, was helpless to fend off the winner after six furlongs, but kept on with good courage best of the others. PEPPY saved ground on the turns, shifted out for the drive and went well clear for the show while never a major factor. SAMURAI SONG had a three-wide trip and faded before completing six furlongs. O'PADDY appeared unsettled behind and between horses through the early going, remained between foes until shifting out three wide in upper stretch, and came up empty.
