Ch. c. (Mar), by Curlin - On a Roll, by A.P. Indy. Trainer Baffert Bob. Bred by G Watts Humphrey Jr Susan Keller Victoria Oliver & G Watts Humphrey III (Ky).

DABSTER broke in slightly, was closest in pursuit from off the rail, stalked three wide to second bend, challenged passing three-eighths marker, gained lead, resisted in upper stretch, edged away through the drive and turned back outside rival. DIVISOR three wide early, stalked on same path into second turn, came out some on that bend, loomed five wide into the stretch, bid outside winner passing quarter marker, remained outside but could not match that rival in the drive. COLONIST stalked while bit wide into backstretch, continued three or four wide, engaged leaders from between foes into the lane, angled inward through the drive and finished willingly. YA GOTTA WANNA was squeezed back some in opening strides, chased just off the fence, advanced four then five wide on the second turn and into the stretch, came out further in upper stretch and did not threaten. TWENTYTWENTYVISION stalked from along the rail, continued inside to second turn, later came off the rail but never menaced. ENGRAM broke out slightly, saved ground chasing the pace, angled three wide around the last turn then angled back in some in the stretch. LITTLE SCOTTY was quickly sent to the front, set uncontested pace from off the rail, overtaken on the second turn then gave way readily in the stretch.
