JOHNNY JUMP UP was hustled clear soon after the break, stayed out from the rail while under rating, responded when challenged in early stretch and held under steady urging. MONONGAHELA was unhurried, bumped PERSIE while moving through tight quarters three wide between horses on the final turn, loomed boldly outside the winner into the final furlong then hung. DR BLARNEY was rated in the three path, edged closer in early stretch then lacked the needed closing response. SOMEDAY JONES raced two wide between horses around the final turn and lacked a rally. GRASSHOPPIN was reluctant to load then failed to menace in an even effort. JOHN JONES wasn't far back along the rail to the stretch then tired. PERSIE advanced outside on the backstretch, was bumped while four wide on the final turn, stopped and was eased up. PAL CAL was eased up while outrun. NOT FAKE NEWS trailed and was eased up through the lane.
