A BIT SPECIAL (GB) broke well then raced three wide in first turn, settled while rated mid-pack through backstretch, edged up just bit closer racing three to four wide in far turn, switched out couple paths top stretch, given cue and kicked in with willingly response, rallied along outside and prevailed under firm encouragement. FORTUNATE GIRL showed speed from outside, cleared and crossed over to save ground in first turn, continued to set the pace racing near inside through backstretch, came under pressure from rivals in far turn, turned back bids, sent driving turning for home and had more left in tank, dug in racing two wide then got caught by late charging winner. VOW TO RECOVER brushed steps after start then saved ground in first turn, raced midflight saving ground through middle stages then raced in traffic and steadied slightly three eighths pole, cut the corner and made way through to clear path top stretch, set down for drive, could not reach top pair, kept along for share. RED ROUNDER saved ground in first turn then stalked near inside through backstretch, hustled up along rail at quarter pole then switched out three wide upper stretch, raced in contention then evened out. STORMY D angled to rail in first turn, continued unhurried saving ground through middle stages, raced two wide in crowded quarters at quarter pole, continued with some traffic but made way through, lacked needed kick for serious impact. AUNT HATTIE (IRE) rated off trio racing four wide, hustled up closer contention racing in striking distance at eighth pole, continued steady bid into stretch then flattened out. BOX OF GOLD brushed into just after start, raced off the pace, hustled up in far turn then failed to rally in lane. MULTI STRATEGY came in steps after start and brushed with rival, raced off the pace then driving six wide upper without gaining threatening position. MALIBU DAWN forwardly placed through backstretch, made bid for leader at three eighths pole, could not reach rival then retreated in stretch. QUEEN MEDB (IRE) raced in the back, hustled up in far three wide in final turn then moved out wider and failed to move on.
