B. f, (Feb), by Concerto - Western Punch, by West by West. Trainer Paz-Rodriguez Alberto. Bred by Jorge Rangel (Pan).

BRIGANTIA (PAN) brushed at start then raced along outside entering first turn, settled while rated racing five wide through middle stages, picked up pace at half then launched bid for leader leaving backstretch, roused forward and took slight edge over KUTZAMALA at quarter pole, sent clear into upper stretch then kept clear under steady urging. ROSA SALVAJE (PAN) raced three to four wide in first turn then continued outside off the pace, hustled up along outside in far turn, showed response racing wide and got up late to gain place. ETRUSKA (MEX) was rated racing in range through backstretch, hustled up in far turn, cut corner entering top stretch, angled out wider under left handed urging near eighth pole, continued steady bid then edged out late for place. LA CORONADA (PAN) was reserved racing in the back saving ground, picked up pace racing along outside in far turn then raced very wide and improved. KUTZAMALA (MEX) led the way in first turn, continued to set the pace racing near inside with rivals not far behind, appeared comfortable on top three furlongs from home then headed by winner at quarter pole and entering stretch. VISIONARIA (VEN) prompted pace running through backstretch, came under ride at three eighths pole, could not reach leader then steadily retreated. REGALADA raced in contention in early stages, failed to sustain bid and dropped back. LADY SLAM (VEN) was forwardly placed racing just off the leader, under a ride racing four wide leaving backstretch but failed to keep pace and faded. SALMIANA (MEX) stumbled steps after start and lost rider, ran around loose during race then corralled by outriders and walked home.
