RED KNIGHT was unhurried through the first mile and a half, swept past rivals with a quick five-wide run around the fourth and final bend, cleared to the inside in upper stretch, and dug in gamely to stave off SOGLIO in the last strides. SOGLIO steadied slightly in a crowd of horses waiting for room into the final turn, got through between foes in the three-path past the quarter-pole, had aim outside the leader the last three-sixteenths of a mile, gained gradually very late but could not get by. NESSY lagged far back early, advanced steadily after a mile, gained a brief lead three wide midway on the final turn, was quickly outmoved by the top two and could only run on for the show. WINTER UNION saved ground in another area code for a mile, began narrowing the gap into the final turn, was knocked sideways bumping with PORTER STREET leaving the final turn, shifted inside and put in a mild late run for a share. PORTER STREET prompted the pace for a mile and a half, dropped back into the final turn and bumped with WINTER UNION nearing the stretch, regrouped and came back on improving position late. LASCAUX was far back for a mile, took the final turn three wide, and improved position without threatening. SEEKING ALBERT raced far back early, and had no closing bid. GALOPE AMERICANO (BRZ) steadied through the stretch the second time, moved into the picture four wide into the final turn, and gave way to the lane. ARCHER ROAD advanced steadily three wide to the last turn, but weakened in the late stages. CULLUM ROAD ran along all by his lonesome in fourth for a while, put in a run into the final turn, then gave way shifting inward near the stretch. UNBRIDLED HOLIDAY was alone in third as the field strung out through the opening mile, issued a brief challenge two wide after a mile and a half, was quickly outmoved after that, and dropped from contention. CAMP CREEK broke awkwardly and checked at the start, and never became involved. EKHTIBAAR led a strung-out field through the first 12 furlongs, and stopped inside.
