MIHOS raced widest and exchanged brushes with CODE OF HONOR as they narrowed the gap on the leaders up the backstretch, continued edging closer still in the five-path approaching the stretch, and sustained the rally determinedly to wear down TROPHY CHASER from the outside through the closing yards. TROPHY CHASER pressed the pace outside GLADIATOR KING and WELL DEFINED, wrested command past the five-sixteenths, drew well clear through upper stretch, stayed on gamely but could not contain the winner in the last strides. GARTER AND TIE broke out at the start hitting the right side of the gate and brushing with WELL DEFINED, came off the rail to the three-path late on the turn, split horses through the furlong grounds and finished willingly while moving out late. CODE OF HONOR bumped with GLADIATOR KING at the start, exchanged brushes with MIHOS up the backstretch, stayed in striking range four wide between horses into the turn, struggled to keep pace after six furlongs and gave way. WELL DEFINED brushed with GARTER AND TIE at the start, chased outside GLADIATOR KING early, lodged a mild bid in the two-path between horses on the turn, and had nothing left by upper stretch. GLADIATOR KING bumped with CODE OF HONOR at the start, sped clear early and moved inside, could not deal with several challenges around the turn and dropped back steadily.
