B. f, (Mar), by Blame - Salsa Star, by Giant's Causeway. Trainer Mott William I. Bred by Sagamore Farm (Md).

BLAMED sprinted clear early, rated along slightly off the rail as the rider took a peek back approaching the stretch, was roused sharply into the lane, drifted out from left-hand pressure just inside the furlong marker, straightened out and held firm to the finish. JALA JALA (MEX) advanced three wide midway around the turn, loomed a threat outside BLAMED turning for home, rallied determinedly through the furlong grounds, and continued willingly to hold the place. TEQUILITA was hemmed in chasing after BLAMED while inside SILVER RAY heading to the turn, came under a drive three-eighths of a mile from home, made no headway to upper stretch under heavy pressure, and ran on with good courage on the rail to make it close for second. ANOTHER BROAD was outrun early, shifted out three wide late on the turn, and lacked the needed response with an even finish outside. WEEKEND MISCHIEF saved ground throughout and failed to make her presence felt. TULSA QUEEN was never prominent three wide. SILVER BAY chased outside BLAMED from the start, and gave way between horses leaving the quarter-pole.
