DO SHARE away without apparent mishap, took up the chase from path two, wedged between rivals until the five-sixteenths marker, picked up interest tipping to the outside leaving that station, got driven five wide into the lane, shot past the long-time battling three front runners and to the front end during the ensuing furlong, drew off smartly under good handling. LIFE IN SHAMBLES saw the pilot take hold after taking an awkward initial step to the the right, was sighted pulling on the right afterwards tracking the pace from along the inside route, got cued up for the drive home, angled four wide into the stretch, closed in willingly to procure the place. BAVARO attained a prominent position in short order after brushing with BON RAISON as the field was sent off and running, was in path three, pressing the issue as the widest of a trio all the way to the furlong grounds, proved no match once the winner arrived on the scene, mustered up some courage in the last eighth to salvage the show. SKYLER'S SCRAMJET narrowly broke in front, got guided over to the inside route, showed the way, hounded by a pair of oppoents positioned out in paths two and three respectively for practiacally the entire opening half, was set down as the tussle spilled over into the stretch, kept up the fight for another furlong before weakening. SYNDERGAARD was quickly set up in the two path after the start, was lightly hand urged disputing the pace from between foes, was put to stronger handling once into the stretch, vied with willingness until deep into the furlong grounds then backed away. BON RAISON pinched at the start, brought up the back of the pack, was hung out three to four wide, the widest of all, on the turn, was put to a ride for the drive home, fanned out towards path seven during the initial portion of the stretch, maintaining its status of being the widest of all, had no rally. FULLY VESTED broke open the gate, proceeded to make some contact with BON RAISON in the shadow of the start, travelled three wide on the turn, got maneuvered into path six after spinning into the stretch, retreated to last after never having any impact.
