Dk. b or br. g, (Mar), by Vronsky - Smoothasvelvet, by Mr. Integrity. Trainer Kern David. Bred by Old English Rancho Patsy Berumen &amp; Sal Berumen (Cal).

BRICKHOUSE dueled for the lead along the rail, was headed by multiple rivals passing the 1/2 mile pole, was put to a drive and regained the lead inside of the 7/16ths pole, repelled multiple bids from outer rivals passing the 1/8th pole and stayed on strong to the wire. MISSING GROOM stalked the leaders from the pocket, began his 4wd bid passing the 5/16th pole, stuck his nose in front passing the 3/16ths pole, but was repelled by inner rival passing the 1/8th pole. BRILLIANT MIKE went 8 wide into the first turn, stayed in the 5 path down the backstretch and through the far turn before offering a mild bid in the stretch. CURRENTLY KRAZY dueled 2wd between horses early, was outpaced and faltered passing the 1/4 pole, then tired along the rail in the stretch. HIP TO BE DON was far back early, lost touch with the field through the first turn, was put to a drive passing the 1/2 mile pole and passed tired rivals in the stretch. TON EIGHTY dueled for the lead 3wd outside of multiple rivals, moved to the 2 path into the far turn before being outkicked by rivals on both sides passing the 1/8th pole and stopped badly in the stretch. JUST NIK saved ground and faltered passing the 1/4 pole.
