B. c, (Apr), by Stay Thirsty - Feel That Fire, by Lightnin N Thunder. Trainer Sacco Gregory D. Bred by Red Oak Stable (Ky).

MIND CONTROL gathered after breaking slightly to the outside, was patiently ridden keeping watch on the leader proceeding along the backstretch, pressed the issue from path three on turn, came under a drive approaching the five-sixteenths marker, spun one path farther off the rail entering the stretch and took off in earnest after the one to catch, poked a head down in front finishing off the run leading up to and then through the furlong grounds, got herded out nearly two paths by MUCH BETTER during the going from the eighth pole to the sixteenth MARKER, clung to the lead nevertheless then edged away in the final stages. MUCH BETTER established control soon after the start, was coaxed along in path two travelling on the turn, accompanied by MIND CONTROL to his outside, shifted into path three when put to a drive for the drive home, got headed deep into the furlong grounds, began to come out and then even more so when put to abbreviated left side pressure between midstretch and the sixteenth pole, resumed a truer course afterwards, was willing to the end but ultimately denied. CALL PAUL shied out after bobbling at the start, sat parked out four wide, the widest of this quartet, during the run around the bend, flashed some interest after the half had been rattled off, got set down prior to the quarter pole, angled into path five for entrance into the stretch, failed to maintain its momentum and backed away. MUCHO took an awkward first step springing from the starting gate, responded to the brisk encouragement from the pilot that immediately followed to assume a forward position, raced abreast of the winner for a brief spell before being allowed to ease back, dove over to the inside route approaching the conclusion of the backstretch, was put to a stronger and stronger ride station by station on the turn, cut the corner into the lane, went onward for a few more jumps before beginning a steady retreat to last.
